Regiment as a private during the War Between The States. He served at Manassas, Chichamauga, Raccon Mountain, Knoxville, Dandridge and was wounded in the battle of the Wilderness, on May 6, 1864.

He married Bridget Brennan O'Neill in Ireland before emigrating to America.
They had the following children: Louisa; Patrick H.; Mary Anne; William, and Dan.
Louisa married first, James McGovern; second, Michael Joseph Keyes; Patrick H. O'Neill his heirs at law, including child or children of deceased children.

Louisa O'Neill McGovern married Michael Joseph Keyes, after the death of her first husband, James McGovern, and they had two children: John James Keyes, Sr.

sometimes known as Michael Joseph Keyes and M. J. Keyes, as well as "Uncle Mike".
Louisa O'Neill McGovern Keyes was affectionately known as "Aunt Lou". John James Keyes, Sr. married Helen Jane O'Hare and they had five children one of whom died at birth; the oldest was James Keyes, who died at the age of only a few weeks. John James Keyes, Jr. a/k/a "Jack"; Michael Joseph Keyes a/k/a "Mike" Keyes and Mary Theresa Keyes. Mary Theresa Keyes died at the age of sixteen on June 2, 1946, without ever marrying. At the date of this affidavit, both John James Keyes, Sr. and Marguerite Keyes are living. Marguerite Keyes married Sebastian Watts and they have one child James Keyes Watts, a/k/a "Jim" Watts.

Mary Anne O'Neill married Alois Kirchler. We incorporate into this affidavit that of John Alois Patrick Kirchler, dated November 2, 1965, a certified copy of which is attached hereto, marked Exhibit A, and incorporated herein by this reference as
