

AFFIDAVIT

Before me, Dorothy D. Keyes, a Notary Public, State at Large, appeared John James Keyes, Jr., Bessie Kirchler, and Marguerite K. Watts, who are known to me, and who upon being duly sworn to tell the truth in all respects, depose and saith:

We have known the William O'Neill family for over seventy years. Our association with them goes back many, many years and is both a close personal and a close business association. They are a fine family of Irishmen and Irishwomen, counting among themselves the Mother General of the Sisters of the Most Holy Sacrament of the Roman Catholic Church: Alberta O'Neill, also known affectionately as "Dot".

Uncle Willie and Aunt Lizzie, as William O'Neill and his wife, Elizabeth Nora O'Neill were affectionately known had the following children:

Blanche O'Neill
Dan O'Neill
Pat O'Neill a/k/a Charles Patrick O'Neill, Sr.
Louie O'Neill
Edward O'Neill a/k/a Harry O'Neill
William G. O'Neill
Alberta O'Neill, now Mother M. Clementino, M.H.S.
Rosa O'Neill Rutto
Teresa O'Neill Woods
Michael J. O'Neill
Ellen Nora O'Neill Swartz
Truman H. O'Neill
Birgit Z. O'Neill

a total of thirteen children.

Blanche and Dan O'Neill died when they were only children under the age of ten years. They died without issue, intestate.

Pat O'Neill a/k/a Charles Patrick O'Neill, Sr. is deceased and is survived by only his wife, Nell Hall O'Neill and his only children: Pat O'Neill Jr., a/k/a Charles Patrick O'Neill, Jr. and Martha O'Neill Nelson, the wife of Charles Nelson. There were all of his heirs at law, including child or children of deceased child or children.

Louie O'Neill died without issue, leaving surviving him only his wife, Florence Geber O'Neill; there were no children, including no children of a deceased child or children; his wife, his brothers and sisters aforesaid and his mother were his only heirs.

Edward H. O'Neill, who is also known as Harry O'Neill married Era Mae Box.

William G. O'Neill is a single man.

Alberta O'Neill, affectionately known as "Dot", was, until her death, June 17, 1969, Mother Mary Clementino, M.H.S., Mother General of the Sisters of the Most Holy Sacrament Lafayette Louisiana. Of course, Sister Clementino never had any children, for she was never married.

Rosa O'Neill Rutto is the wife of James C. Rutto.

Teresa O'Neill Woods is the widow of Leo W. Woods.

Michael J. O'Neill is deceased as is his wife, Gertrude Howe O'Neill. He had only one child, Susan O'Neill, a single woman. Susan O'Neill was the only child or children of Michael J. O'Neill and Gertrude Howe O'Neill, including child or children of deceased child or children.

Ellen Nora O'Neill Swartz is married to Morris Swartz.

Truman H. O'Neill is the husband of Cora Scott O'Neill.

Kirgil Z. O'Neill is the husband of Hattie Mae Brown O'Neill.

We solemnly swear that we have read the recital in the deeds conveying the interest of Sister Clementine's brothers and sisters to her and that with the exception of its failing to mention Dan and Blanche, the facts stated therein are true and correct.

Further the deponents saith not.
