STATE OF ALABAMA

SHELBY COUNTY

BEFORE ME, the undersigned, a Notary Public in and for said County in said State, personally appeared Grover L. Busby who, being duly sworn, deposes and says as follows:

I was well acquainted with the late John Mack Busby, having known him for a period of 41 years before his death. The said John Mack Busby died on or about Nov 13, 1942, and was married to Lizzie Green, who died on or about May 1, 1921. At the time of his death the sole and only heirs at law and next of kin of John Mack Busby were Grover L. Busby, who was his son, Hassie Neese, who was his Daughter, and Jesse Neese, the husband of Hassie Neese.

He further deposed and said that there are no outstanding debts of John Mack Busby or his wife. that there are no liens or encumbrances against the property and that there are no other heirs of the same degree as Grover L. Busby, Hassie Neese and Jessie Neese.

The taxes on this property that formerly belonged to John Mack Busby have been paid since his death by Nancy Crim Busby, and the taxes on said property have been paid as due since his death and are not delinquent.

Grover L. Busby
