DISCHARGE OF BANKRUPT

It appearing that the person named above has filed a petition commencing a case under the Act on April 24, 1974

was duly adjudged a bankrupt and that no complaint objecting to the discharge of the bankrupt was filed within the time fixed by the court [or that a complaint objecting to discharge of the bankrupt was filed and, after due notice and hearing, was not sustained]; it is ordered that

1. The above-named bankrupt is released from all dischargeable debts.

2. Any judgment heretofore or hereafter obtained in any court other than this court is null and void as a determination of the personal liability of the bankrupt with respect to any of the following:

(a) debts dischargeable under § 17a and b of the Bankruptcy Act;

(b) unless heretofore or hereafter determined by order of this court to be nondischargeable, debts alleged to be excepted from discharge under clauses (2) and (4) of § 17a of the Act;

(c) unless heretofore or hereafter determined by order of this court to be nondischargeable, debts alleged to be excepted from discharge under clause (8) of § 17a of the Act, except those debts on which there was an action pending on the date when the petition was filed as specified above in which a right to jury trial existed and a party has either made a timely demand therefor or has submitted to this court a signed statement of intention to make such a demand;

(d) debts determined by this court to be discharged under § 17c(3) of the Act.

3. All creditors whose debts are discharged by this order and all creditors whose judgments are declared null and void by paragraph 2 above are enjoined from instituting or continuing any action or employing any process to collect such debts as personal liabilities of the above-named bankrupt.
