KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS:

For many years, in accordance with the rule and discipline of the Roman Catholic Church, the members of the Roman Catholic Church residing in the State of Alabama and the western portion of Florida constituted a Diocese pursuant to the canons and rules of the Roman Catholic Church and the spiritual affairs of the Diocese, within these geographical limits, were entrusted to the Bishop of the Roman Catholic Church who took the title; Bishop of Mobile. During the year 1911, in accordance with provisions of Act No. 429 of the General Acts of Alabama of 1911 (presently codified as Title 10, Sections 115 through 123, Code of Alabama of 1940) the then Bishop of the Catholic Diocese of Mobile elected to become a corporation sole and did become a corporation sole under the aforesaid law and under the style and name of "The Bishop of Mobile, a corporation sole." The original incorporation of The Bishop of Mobile, a corporation sole, was perfected on August 24, 1911 at a time when the late Most Rev. Edward P. Allen was the Bishop of the Diocese of Mobile. Upon incorporation, all of the temporal goods and properties adhering to the Diocese of Mobile became vested in the Bishop of Mobile, a corporation sole, under the name: "Most Rev. Edward P. Allen, Bishop of Mobile, a corporation sole." In due time, following the death of Bishop Edward P. Allen, he was succeeded as Bishop in such Diocese by the Most Rev. T. J. Toolen, who applied to the Secretary of State of Alabama for a Certificate of Succession as Bishop of Mobile and who was issued such a certificate May 27, 1927. From that day forward the temporal goods of the Diocese were held in the name Most Rev. T. J. Toolen, Bishop of Mobile, a corporation sole.

During the tenure of the Most Rev. T. J. Toolen the name of his Diocese (but not the name of the corporation sole) was changed from "Diocese of Mobile" to "Diocese of Mobile-Birmingham." Moreover, during the same period the limits of the Diocese were reduced from the former boundaries to the geographical boundaries of the State of Alabama and after such reduction the territorial jurisdiction over which the Bishop of the Diocese of Mobile-Birmingham was in charge became and remained the geographical limits of the State of Alabama, all of the temporalities remaining nevertheless held in the name of Most Rev. T. J. Toolen, Bishop of Mobile, a corporation sole.

During the year 1969 the Most Rev. T. J. Toolen submitted his resignation as Bishop of the Diocese and higher ecclesiastical authority having jurisdiction of such matters did thereafter cause the Diocese of Mobile-Birmingham to be divided into two Dioceses; that is to say, that higher competent ecclesiastical authority having jurisdiction in such matters relating to the Roman Catholic Church, its governance and discipline, caused to be carved out of the former Diocese of Mobile-Birmingham a new Diocese within the geographical limits of the State of Alabama the territorial extent of which is as follows:

The Diocese of Birmingham in Alabama, newly erected and established, now consists of that portion of the former Diocese of Mobile-Birmingham included within the following counties of the State of Alabama, to-wit:

The territorial limits of the Diocese of Mobile, after the establishment of the new Diocese, were reduced to the remaining counties in the State of Alabama other than the counties listed above as having been constituted the Diocese of Birmingham in Alabama.

Following the erection of the new Diocese of Birmingham in Alabama the Most Rev. Joseph G. Having been named as Bishop of the newly formed Diocese of Birmingham in Alabama the Most Rev. Joseph G.
