I, Florence Gaskin Cole, a resident of Jefferson County, Alabama, being of sound mind and disposing memory, and above the age of twenty-one years, do hereby make and publish this my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking any and all wills heretofore made by me.

ITEM I

I direct that all of my just debts, including the expenses of my last illness and funeral, be paid by my Executor, hereinafter named, as soon after my death as he shall deem advisable.

ITEM III

In the event my husband, William Cole Long, shall die before die, or if he and I should die at the same time, or under circumstances creating doubt as to which of us survived the other, I give and bequeath unto Martha Lou Riddle, whom I have hereinafter nominated legal guardian for such of my children as may not have attained the age of 21 years at the time of my death, all my household goods, household effects, furniture, appliances, china ware, silverware, jewelry, clothes and personal effects of any kind or character, all to be hers absolutely, and all the rest, residue and remainder of my property of any kind or character whatsoever and wheresoever situated(hereinafter sometimes called "trust estate"), I give, devise and bequeath unto my father, Thomas Allen Gaskin, Sr and my trusted friend, said Martha Lou Riddle, Rome, Georgia, in trust nevertheless, for the uses and purposes, upon the terms and conditions and with the powers and duties hereinafter stated, viz:

ively of the others or other of my children in such proportions, in such manner, at such time and in such amount as my Trustees shall in their sole discretion deem necessary or desirable for such purposes. Any part of the net income not so used shall be accumulated and added to the trust estate. And I do hereby direct that on final division and distribution of my estate, as herein-after directed, that any sum or sums of money expended for my children, or either of them, as hereinabove directed, shall not be charged against any child's distributive share in the trust estate.

a. The Trustees shall, as of the twenty-fifth anniversary of my youngest child, apportion the trust estate, then remaining in their hands, into equal parts so that there will then be set aside one equal share thereof for each of my children who shall then be living or, having died prior to the twenty-fifth (25) anniversary of my youngest child leaving lineal descendants who are then living. And my Trustees shall thereupon deliver over to my children, then living, his or her share in the trust estate, free from trust, and the trustees shall stand discharged pro tanto

b. The Trustees shall hold the share of any lineal descendants of any deceased child of me, entitled to share in said trust estate under the terms of this Item of my will, for the use and benefit of such lineal descendants in equal shares per stirpes, until he or she shall attain the age of twenty-one (21) years, at which time his or her share of said trust estate shall be delivered and paid over to him or her free from this trust.

c. The Trustees shall, during the minority of any lineal descendant of any deceased child of me entitled to share in the trust estate, use and apply for his or her support, health, welfare, education and comfort such part of the net income from his or her share of said trust estate, and of the principal thereof, as the Trustees deem necessary or desirable for said purposes.

d. Where I have herein directed that funds shall be used and applied by the Trustees for the benefit of, or paid to any beneficiary, the Trustees may in their discretion pay over such funds to the person having custody of such beneficiary, or to such other person as they may select, including the beneficiary, to be used and applied for the purposes herein directed, and the receipt of such person shall be full discharge to the Trustees for any sum or sums so paid.

e. In making any apportionment or distribution of principal as herein contemplated, directed or authorized, my Trustees are authorized to determine the total value of my estate and to make selection of the items of property to be paid over and distributed to the party or parties entitled thereto with reference to the share of the trust estate to which such party or parties may be entitled, and without securing any valuation or determination of valuation or direction as to specific items of property to be paid over and distributed from any court; it being my intention that my Trustees shall use their sole judgment and discretion in making such apportionments and determination as to the total value of my estate and as to the selection of item of property going to make up the shares into which my estate is to be divided, without liability to anyone.

ITEM IV

If the happening of any future event may cause the ultimate vesting of any trust estate herein created or of any share therein to be extended under the provisions hereof to a time beyond that within which the same is required by law to become vested, then and in such event the trust as to said trust estate or as to such share therein shall continue only for as long a period of time as is allowed by law, at the end of which period the said trust as to said trust estate or as to such share therein shall terminate. In such case said trust or such share therein shall thereupon be vested in and distributed to those persons at the expiration of such period enjoying the use and benefit of said trust estate or of such share therein, in the proportion in which they are so enjoying the same, irrespective of their attained ages.

1. The Trustees shall hold and manage said property and such other property as they may subsequently acquire pursuant to the power and authority given to them (all of which for convenience will hereinafter be referred to as "trust estate"), with full power to compromise, adjust and settle in their discretion any claim in favor of or against said trust estate, with full power to collect the income therefrom and from time to time to sell, convey, exchange, lease for a period beyond the possible termination of this trust, or for a less period, improve, encumber, borrow on the security of, or otherwise dispose of, all or any portion of said trust estate, in such manner and upon such terms and conditions as said Trustees may approve, and with full power to invest and reinvest said trust estate and the proceeds of sale or disposal of any portion thereof, in such loans, stocks, bonds or other securities, mortgages, common trust funds, or other property, real or personal, as to said Trustees may seem suitable, and to change investments and to make new investments from time to time as to said Trustees may seem necessary or desirable. The Trustees may continue to hold any property or securities originally received by them as a part of said trust estate, so long as they shall consider the retention thereof for the best interests of said trust estate, regardless of whether such property or securities are a so-called "legal" investment of trust funds. In the disposition of any property constituting a part of said trust estate the Trustees may acquire other property which is not a so-called "legal" investment of trust funds where such course is in their opinion for the best interests of said trust estate. The Trustees shall have power to determine whether any money or property coming into their hands shall be treated as a part of the principal of said trust estate or a part of the income therefrom, and to apportion between such principal and income any loss or expenditure in connection with said trust estate as to them may seem just and equitable.

2. The Trustees hereunder shall be entitled to receive reasonable compensation for their services hereunder, to be paid out of the income from the trust estate.

3. The Trustees shall pay from and out of the income of the trust estate any and all expenses reasonably necessary for the administration of the trust, including interest, taxes, insurance, public liability insurance and compensation to the Trustees, as well as any other expenses incurred for the benefit of the trust estate, and in the event the income from the trust estate is insufficient for the purpose of paying such expenses, the same may be paid from the corpus of the trust estate.

4. As to the net income which by any of the provisions of this will may be payable to any child of me, or to any descendant of a deceased child of me, he or she shall have no right or power either directly or indirectly to anticipate, charge, mortgage, encumber, assign, pledge, hypothecate, sell or otherwise dispose of same, or of any part thereof, until same shall have been actually paid in hand to him or her by the Trustees. Nor shall such income nor the principal or corpus of said trust estate, nor any part of, or interest in said trust estate be liable for or to any extent subject to any debts, claims or obligations of any kind or nature whatsoever, or to any legal process in aid thereof, contracted or incurred by or for any such child, before or after my death.

ITEM VI

In the event either said Thomas Allen Gaskin, Sr., or Martha Lou Riddle shall predecease me, or in the event of the death of either of them during the continuance of said trust, the survivor of them shall thereafter act as Trustee hereunder, with all of the rights, powers, duties and discretion herein vested in them as Trustees.

ITEM VII

In the event my husband shall die before I die, or as aforesaid, and in the event my children, or either of them, shall not have attained the age of twenty-one (21) years at the time of my death, I nominate and request the Court to appoint my said trusted friend, Martha Lou Riddle, guardian of such of my children as have not attained his or her majority at the time of my death and I do exempt, and request the court to exempt, my said testamentary guardian from giving bond as such guardian.

ITEM VIII

I hereby nominate, constitute and appoint my husband, William Long Cole, as the Executor of this my Last Will and Testament and I hereby specifically exempt him from giving any bond or bonds whatsoever in connection with his appointment as Executor of my estate and in connection with the administration of my estate by him. And I do hereby further specifically exempt my said Executor from filing any inventory and from making any report whatsoever to any court or person of his acts and doings as the Executor of my estate. And I do hereby vest in my said Executor full power and authority to sell and convey all or any part of my property, real, personal or mixed, upon such terms and conditions as he may approve at public or private sale without securing authority therefor from any court or person whatsoever.

ITEM IX

In the event of the death of my said husband during the administration of my estate, or if my said husband should predecease me, or in the event of his incapacity or inability to act as Executor of my estate from any reason whatever, I nominate and appoint said Thomas Allen Gaskin, Sr., and Martha Lou Riddle, or the survivor of them Executors of this my Last Will and Testament, and I direct that as such Executors they shall not be required to give bond or to file an inventory or appraisement of my estate in any court. And I hereby vest in my said Executors or the survivor of them all of the powers and authority granted my said husband under ITEM VIII of this will.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and seal on this the 31st day of October, 1961.
