In consideration of the mutual promises hereinafter set forth, it is agreed, that should any of the aforesaid parties desire to dispose of his or her interest in the above-described property and in whatever improvements have been made thereon, the remaining parties shall have an option to purchase the interest of the said party at an amount equal to the fair market values of his or her interest in the above-described property and improvements. In the event of the death of any of the parties with the result that the above-described property and its improvements would transfer to someone other than the parties hereto, the surviving parties shall have the option of purchasing from the heirs, executors, or administrators of the deceased party for a sum equal to the fair market value of the deceased's interest in the above-described property and improvements thereon. Further, if such option is exercised, such heirs, executors and/or administrators shall convey and release to the surviving parties the deceased's party's interest therein. The said option shall extend for a period of thirty (30) days after notice of the occurrence of one of the contingencies set out above.

If said option is not exercised within such thirty (30) day period, then the said interest shall be disposed of according to the wishes of the owner (or his being executor or administrator) thereof.

The parties hereby agree, each of himself or herself, his or her heirs, executors, and administrators that he or she will not bargain, sell or convey the above-described property and improvements to any other person or persons or in any other manner than as above set forth, save that should it be mutually agreed between the parties to sell and dispose of the above-described property and the improvements thereon, then and in that case, the property may be sold to any person or persons whomsoever free from any restrictions or conditions herein contained.
