My name is Alberta McClanahan Williams. I am seventy two (72) years of age, and now reside at 1832 8th Avenue, Huntington, West Virginia.

My grandmother was Mary Wallace, who went to Shelby County, Alabama, some time in the 1870s, and lived there until her death. She had four children, whose names were: Sam Wallace, who died approximately ten years ago in Chicago, Illinois and left no children; William Wallace, who died approximately thirteen years ago in Bessemer, Alabama, and had one son, who was killed in an accident and left no children; Rosie Wallace Mill, who is deceased and so are all of her children; and, Willie Wallace, who was my mother, and who also died in Shelby County, Alabama. My mother married my father, Robert E. McClanahan, and they together had six children, who were my brothers and sisters; A. B. (Alf) McClanahan, who died in Birmingham in the 1960s and left no children; E. T. (Ernest) McClanahan, who died in Wisconsin and left no children; E. E. (Erma) McClanahan Milligan, who is deceased, and had one son who also is deceased; E. B. (Beatrice) McClanahan McDavid, who died in Saginaw, Michigan, and had one son, who is also dead; Annie Velma McClanahan Jones, who is deceased, leaving five children and the six child is myself, Alberta McClanahan Williams. My sister, Annie Velma McClanahan Jones, left five children, who are over the age of twenty-one (21) and still living: Warren T. Jones; Robert B. Jones; Garland Jones; Gladys Jones Simmons; and, Johnnie Jones Hill.

The foregoing information is according to all of the information which I have, and which is true and correct. No member of my family or any other person living in the community.
