01/12/1979 12:00:00 AM FILED/CERT

Before me, the undersigned, a Notary Public in and for said County, in said State, personally appeared Irma Lee Stallings, to me known, who after first being duly sworn, deposes and says as follows, to-wit: "My name is Irma Lee Stallings, and I have been a lifelong resident of the State of Alabama. During his lifetime, I knew J. R. McKinnon, and know that he was one of the owners of the following described real property situated in Shelby County, Alabama, to-wit:

The SW $\frac{1}{4}$ of the NE $\frac{1}{4}$ and the NW $\frac{1}{4}$ of the SE $\frac{1}{4}$, Section 4, Township 19, Range 2 East, Shelby County, Alabama.
Situated in Shelby County, Alabama.

I know that J. R. McKinnon, died testate in Jefferson County, Alabama, on or about the 4th day of June, 1965. I know that the said last will and testament of J. R. McKinnon, deceased, left all of his property of whatsoever kind and character, to his widow, Ogie Mae McKinnon, and to no other person. The said last will of J. R. McKinnon was not admitted to Probate in Jefferson County, Alabama, or any other County, since it was not felt to be necessary. I do know that all of his debts have been paid in full many years ago and that no creditor can have a claim against his estate. J. R. McKinnon was only married one time during his lifetime, and that one time was to Ogie Mae McKinnon. There were no children born to this marriage, however, J. R. McKinnon and Ogie Mae McKinnon did legally adopt one son, in Probate Case No. 42881, in the Jefferson County Probate Court. This son, namely, Robert Phillip McKinnon and his widow, Ogie Mae McKinnon both survived J. R. McKinnon and are his next of kin and only heirs at law and are the only persons entitled to share in his estate."

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and seal this the 29th day of December, 1978.
