TERMINATION OF TEMPORARY QUITCLAIM OF EASEMENT

Whereas the Harbert-Equitable Joint Venture, an Alabama general partnership, granted Temporary Quitclaims of Easements to benefit the properties described below, such easements being for underground field lines as were necessary for the proper operation of septic tanks on the properties; and

Whereas such easements by their terms expired and terminated when the Shelby County Health Department, in its written opinion, stated that the easement area was no longer required for maintenance of proper health conditions; and

Whereas the Shelby County Health Department has given its written opinion that the easement areas described below are no longer required for maintenance of proper health conditions, such written opinion being attached hereto as Exhibit A.

Now, therefore, for and in consideration of the premises, notice is hereby given that the following rights, privileges, and easements are expired and terminated:

Easement Lot:	To benefit Lot:	Subdivision	Plat Recorded:
