THIS CAUSE, coming on to be heard, was submitted for final judgment upon the pleadings and proof as noted. Upon consideration thereof, it is,

ORDERED and ADJUDGED by the Court as follows:

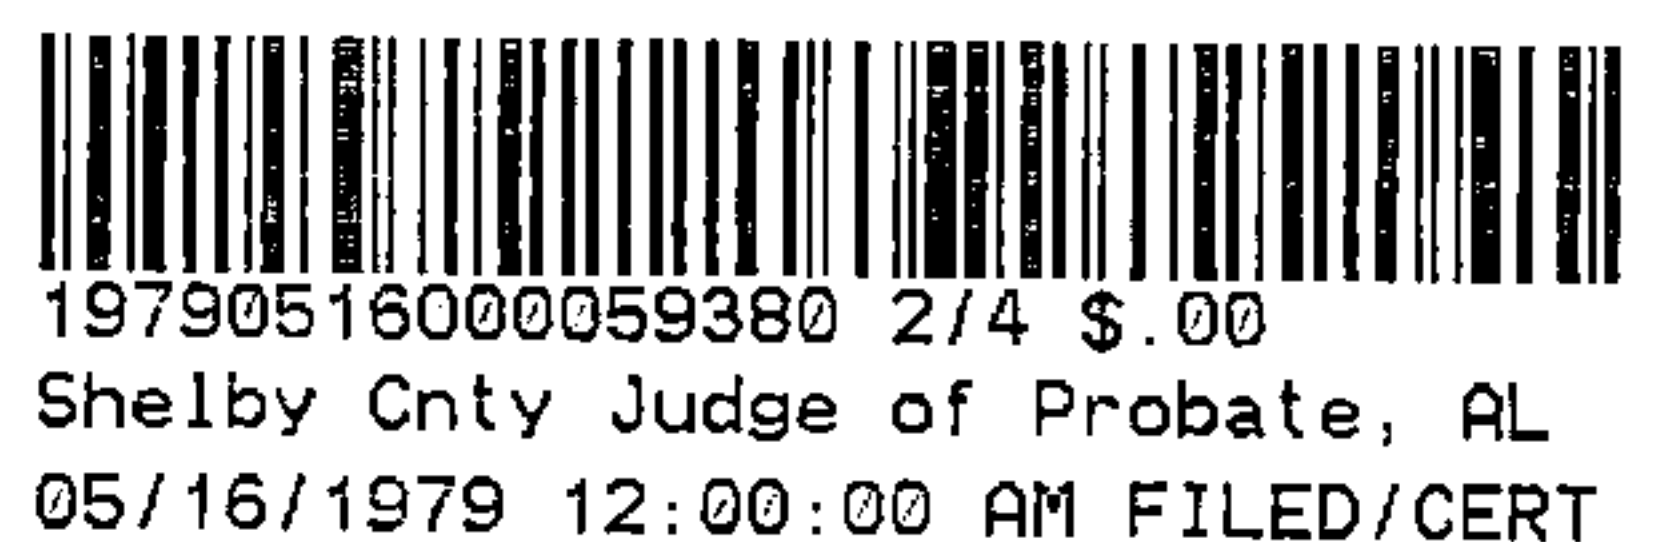

FIRST: That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the parties are dissolved, and the said Susan W. Bishop and said Ted William Bishop are divorced each from the other.

SECOND: That neither party shall marry again except to each other until sixty (60) days after the date of this Judgment of Divorce, and if an appeal is taken (which must be instituted within forty-two (42) days from this Judgment, or from the date that a post-trial motion is denied), then neither party shall again marry except to each other during the pendency of the appeal.

THIRD: RESIDENCE:

That the residence of the parties shall be sold within 120 days from the date of this Judgment at a price to be agreed upon by the parties, and that the net proceeds shall be divided as follows:

From the net proceeds received from the sale, the Plaintiff shall be awarded Seventeen Thousand Nine Hundred Eighty Four and 27/100 Dollars ($17,984.27) which sum represents the amount of the greater interest the Plaintiff has in the residence of the parties. The remainder of the net proceeds shall be equally divided between the parties. If the residence is not sold by the parties within the 120 days allowed, then on motion of either party and order of this Court, the Register shall sell said residence in the manner he deems to best serve the interests of the parties, and shall divide the net proceeds between the parties as provided above. The Plaintiff is ordered to pay to the Defendant the sum of One Hundred Fifty Two Dollars ($152.00) per month on or before the 10th day of each month, beginning May 1979, pending the sale of the residence as provided above. The said payment represents one-half of the mortgage payments on the residence. The Defendant shall make all mortgage payments - to include interest - pending said sale.

The Defendant is hereby awarded the right of sole use and occupancy of said residence pending the sale thereof. Each party is ordered to do all things reasonable to expedite the early sale of the residence.

FOURTH: FURNITURE AND FURNISHINGS:

The Plaintiff is awarded the bedroom furniture, the bedroom furniture used by her daughter, and her dining room table. The Defendant is ordered to deliver the said items to the Plaintiff at the former residence of the parties within ten (10) days of the date of this Judgment and at a time to be agreed upon by the parties.

FIFTH: FARM ANIMALS:

(a) The Plaintiff is awarded the Horse which belongs to the parties.

(b) All other Farm Animals, to include all goats and chickens, are awarded to the Defendant.

SIXTH: That the Defendant pay to the Hon. Jerry Schoel the sum of Six Hundred Dollars ($600.00) for professional services rendered to the Plaintiff in this cause.

SEVENTH: That the costs of Court accrued herein are hereby taxed against the Defendant.

and ORDERED this the 25th day of April, 1979.

ORDER RE: CONTEMPT

A. The Defendant, after a hearing, was ordered to pay to the Plaintiff the sum of fifty ($50.00) per week for her support and maintenance, pendente lite, on January 4, 1979. On February 13, 1979, the Defendant petitioned the Court for, and was granted, a reduction in the amount of pendente lite support to twenty ($20.00) per week.

B. The evidence shows that the Defendant was and has been steadily employed, and is drawing the sum of six hundred seventy ($670.00) Dollars, the same amount which he was drawing at the time of the last hearing.

C. That the failure of the Defendant to abide by the provisions of the previous orders of Court is due to his contumacy rather than his inability to pay.

It is, therefore, ORDERED and ADJUDGED by the Court as follows:

1. That the Defendant is in contempt of Court for failure to comply with the former orders of this Court.
2. That the Defendant is ordered imprisoned in the Jefferson County Jail until such time as he fully purges himself of his contempt, or until further orders of this Court.
3. That Defendant may purge himself of contempt by paying to the Plaintiff the arrearage of pendente lite support in the amount of two hundred seventy ($270.00) Dollars.
