JUDGE OF PROBATE

- No part of said debt has been paid and it is now due and payable at the Office of the District Director of Internal Revenue;
- There are no set-offs or counterclaims to said debt;
- Except for the statutory tax liens which arose on the dates shown above, the United States does not hold, to the deponent's knowledge or belief, any security or securities for said debt;
- No note or other negotiable instrument has been received for said debt or any part thereof, nor has any judgment been rendered with respect to said debt; and
- Said debt has priority and must be paid in full in advance of distribution to creditors to the extent provided by law: See section 6405 of the Revised Statutes (31 U.S.C. 191). Any executor, administrator, or other person who fails to pay the claims of the United States in accordance with its priority, may become personally liable for said debt under section 7407 (31 U.S.C. 192).
