If the mortgagor shall perform all the covenants and agreements herein contained, then these presents shall be void; otherwise they shall remain in full force and effect.

The conveyance of the above described property and all warranties of the mortgagor hereunder (whether express or statutory) shall be subject to the payment of taxes hereafter falling due.

And the mortgagor further expressly agrees and covenants:

To pay all loan advances plus finance charges thereon and other authorized charges in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Promissory Note secured hereby.

To pay promptly all taxes, assessments, liens, or other charges which may be, or become, effective against said property regardless of whether or not the same may be excepted from the warranties hereinafter, together with all penalties, costs, and other expenses incurred, or which may accrue, in connection therewith.

To keep any buildings or other improvements now or which may hereafter be erected upon said property in good repair and insured against fire and lightning and against hazards covered by the form of insurance contract generally known as "extended coverage", and also the form of coverage known as "all physical loss" if required by the mortgagee, by policies issued by good and solvent insurance companies approved by the mortgagee, which policies shall be deposited with the mortgagee and shall provide that loss, if any, shall be payable to the mortgagee as the mortgagee's interest may appear, such policies to be in such amounts, not exceeding the insurable value of the said buildings or other improvements, as may be required by the mortgagee.
