BOOK 333 PAGE 626

This conveyance is made subject to: (1) real estate ad valorem taxes for the tax year ending September 30, 1981; (2) all restrictions, reservations, encroachments, rights, conditions, streets and roads (whether dedicated or undedicated), covenants, leases, rights-of-way and easements (whether the foregoing are recorded or unrecorded) which affect the Real Estate, and without limiting the foregoing, this conveyance is made subject to all existing electric power lines, telephone lines, gas lines and other pipelines and service lines of every nature, if any, which are now on, over or under the Real Estate, together with the rights to maintain, operate, use and make additions to, or alterations in, the same in the approximate places where now located; (3) all laws, ordinances, regulations, restrictions or orders of any federal, state, county or municipal government or of any public authority, including, without limitation, zoning and any other restrictions imposed by governmental authority, which affect the Real Estate; (4) all conditions which an accurate and complete survey would disclose; (5) the minerals and mining rights are excepted.

All of the coal, gas, iron ore, limestone, oil and other minerals in and under the Real Estate (hereinafter collectively called Minerals) and all mining rights necessary or incidental to the removal of the Minerals from the Real Estate, including the right to transport through the Real Estate coal, gas, iron ore, limestone, oil and other minerals from lands which adjoin the Real Estate, without using the surface of the Real Estate, have been reserved by a prior owner of the Real Estate and this conveyance of the Real Estate is made subject to such reservation of Minerals and rights. No right of action for damages on account of injuries to the Real Estate or to any buildings, improvements, structures, pipelines, wells, water courses or other sources of water supply now or hereafter located on the Real Estate or to the Grantees or to other occupants or persons in or upon the Real Estate resulting from any past mining operations, or resulting from blasting, dewatering, or the removal by any party at any time heretofore of coal, gas, iron ore, oil, limestone or other minerals or coal, ore, or other mineral seam or other roof or surface supports, in or from the Real Estate or adjoining, adjacent or other lands shall ever accrue to, or be asserted by, the Grantees or by other occupants of the surface of the Real Estate, their heirs, successors or assigns, or by anyone else, the surface and surface rights in the Real Estate being hereby made expressly subject to all such injuries from past mining operations. The covenants herein contained constitute covenants, rights and easements running with the land (the Real Estate) as against the Grantees and all persons, firms or corporations now or hereafter holding the surface or surface rights of the Real Estate.

To have and to hold to the Grantees for and during their joint lives and upon the death of either of them, then to the survivor of them in fee simple, and to the heirs and assigns of each survivor forever, together with every contingent remainder and right of reversion.

In witness whereof, Mead Land Services, Inc., by its Senior Vice President, P. R. Satterwhite, who is authorized to execute this conveyance, has hereto set its signature and seal, this the 19 day of June, 1981.
