3. The revalties to be paid by Lasser are: (a) on oil, one-eighth (1/8) of that produced and saved from said land, the same to be delivered at the wells or to the credit of Lassor into the pipeline to which the wells may be connected; Lassee may from time to time purchase any royalty oil in its possession, paying the market price therefor prevailing for the field where produced on the date of purchase, in either case such interest to licar its proportion of any expense of treating unmerchantable oil to render it merchantable as crude; (b) on gas, one-eighth (1/8) of the market value at the well of the gas need by Lesser in operations not connected with the land leased or any probed unit containing all or a part of said land; the royalty on gas sold by Lessee to be one-eighth (1/8) of the amount realized at the well from such sakes; (e) one-eighth (1/8) of the market value at the month of the well of gas used by Lessee in manufacturing gasoline or other by-products, except that in computing such value, there shall be excluded all gas or components thereof used in lease or unit operations; and (d) on all other minerals mined and marketed, one-tenth (1/10) either in kind or value at the welf or mine, at Lessee's election, except that on sulphur mined and marketed, the royalty shall be lifty cents (50c) per long ton. In the event that any well on the land or on property probed therewith (or with any part thereof) is capable of producing oil or gas or gaserus solutanes in paying quantities but such minerals are not being produced, then lassee's rights may be maintained, in the absence of production or drilling operations, by commencing or resuming rental payments therein sometimes referred to as shut in gas payments) as hereinafter provided in paragraph 6. Should such conditions occur or exist at the end of or after the primary term, or within sixty (60) days prior to the expiration thereof. Lesser's rights may be extended beyond and after the primary term by the commencement, resumption or continuance of such payments at the rate and in the manner berein provided for rental payments during the primary term, and for the purpose of computing and making such payments the expiration date of the primary term and each anniversary date thereof shall be considered as a fixed rental paying date, and if such payments are made, it will be considered that oil or gas or gaseous substance is being produced within the meaning of paragraph 2 hereof, Lessee shall have free use of oil, gas, each, word and water from said land, except water from Lessor's wells, for all operations beremuler, and royalty on oil, gas and coal shall be computed after deducting any so used.

4. Leave, at its option, is berely given the right and power to peol or combine the acreage covered by this leave or any portion thereof with other land, leave or leaves in the immediate vicinity thereof, when in lasser's judgment it is necessary or advisable to do so in order properly", a develop and operate said premises in compliance with any lawful spacing rules which may be prescribed for the tickl in which this kase is situated by any duly authorized authority, or when to do so would, in the judgment of Lesser, promote the conservation of the oil and gas in and under and that may be produced from said premises. Lexwer shall execute in writing an instrument identifying and describing the probed acreage. The entire acreage so probed into a tract or unit shall be treated, for all purposes except the payment of royalties on production from the product as it it were included in this lease. If production is found on the production for shall be treated as if production is had from this lease, whether the well or wells be located on the premiers encered in this lease or not. In hen of the recalties elsewhere herein specified, Leser shall receive on production from a unit so pooled only such portion of the revally stipulated herein as the amount of his acreage placed in the unit or his royalty interest therein on an acreage basis hears to the total acreage so peoled in the particular unit involved.

5. If operations for drilling are not commenced on said land or on acreage pooled therewith as above provided on or before one year from this date the lease shall their terminate as to both parties, orders on or before such anniversary date to see shall pay or tender to tessor or to the credit of tassor in First National Bank of Birmingham, at Birmingham, Alabama (which bank and its successors are Lessor's agent and shall continue as the depository for all rentals payable hereunder regardless of changes in ownership of said land or the rentals) the sum of Forty and No 100 * 12.40.00 ....). (berem called restal), which shall cover the privilege of deferring commencement of drilling operations for a period of twelve (12) months. In like manner and upon like payments or tenders annually the commencement of drilling operations may be further deferred for successive per ods of twelve (12) months each during the primary term. The payment or tender of rental may

If such bank (or any successor bank) should fail, liquidate or be successfully another bank, or for any reason fail or refuse to accept rental. Lasser shall not be held in default for failure to make such payment or tender of rental until thirty (30) days after Lasser shall deliver to Lasser a proper revordable instrument, naming another bank as agent to revoive such payments or tenders. The down cash payment is consideration for this lease according to its terms and shall not be allocated as mere rental for a period. Lessee may at any time or times execute and deliver to Lessor or to the depository above named or place of record a release or release covering any portions of the above described premises and thereby surrender this lease as to such portion or portions and be relieved of all obligations as to the acreage surrendered, and thereafter the rentals payable beremuler shall be reduced in the proportion that the acresse envered berely is reduced by said release or releases.

6. If prior to discovery of oil, gas or other mineral on said land or on acreage probed therewith Lessee should drill a dry hole or holes thereon, or if after discovery of oil, gas or other mineral, the production thereof should crase from any cause, this lease shall not terminate if Lasser commences additional drilling or reworking operations within 60 days thereafter or if it be within the primary term, commences or resumes the payment or tender of rentals or commences operations for drilling or reworking on or before the rental paying date next ensuing after the expiration of 60 days from date of completion of dry hole or cresation of production. If at any time subsequent to sixty (60) days prior to the beginning of the last year of the primary term and prior to the discovery of oil, gas or other mineral on said land, or on acreage probed therewith. Lasser should drill a dry hole thereon, no rental payment or operations are necessary in order to keep the lease in force during the remainder of the primary term. If at the expiration of the primary term, oil, gas or other mineral is not being produced on said land, or on acreage pooled therewith, but Lesser is then engaged in drilling or reworking operations thereon or shall have completed a dry hole therem within sixty (60) days prior to the end of the primary term, the lease shall remain in force so long as operations are prosecuted with no cresation of more than sixty (60) consecutive days, and if they result in the production of oil, gas or other mineral, so long thereafter as oil, gas or other mineral is produced from said land or acreage pooled therewith. In the event a well or wells producing oil or gas in paying quantities should be brought in on adjacent land and within one bundred fifty (150) feet of and draining the leased premises, or acreage proded therewith. Lessee agrees to drill such offset wells as a reasonably Drudent operator would drill under the same or similar circumstances.

7. Lessee shall have the right at any time during or after the expiration of this lease to remove all property and fixtures placed by Lassee on said laid, including the right to draw and remove all casing. When required by Lessor, Lessor will bury all pipe lines below ordinary plow depth, and no well shall be drilled within two hundred (200) feet of any residence or barn now on soid land without Lessor's consent. Lessor shall be responsible for all damages caused by Lasser's operations beremider other than damages necessarily caused by the exercise of the rights herein granted.

8. The rights of either party beremuler may be assigned in whole or in part, and the provisions bereof shall extend to their beirs, successors and assigns; but no change or division in ownership of the land, rentals or royalties, however accomplished, shall operate to enlarge the obligations or diminish the rights of Lassee, and no change or division in such ownership shall be binding on Lassee until thirty (30) days after Lasve shall have been formished by registered U.S. mail at Lasve's principal place of business with a certified copy of recorded instrument or instruments evidencing some. In the event of assignment bereaf in whole or in part liability for breach of any obligation beremider shall rest exclusively upon the owner of this lease or of a portion thereof who commits such breach. In the event of the death of any person entitled In rentals bereinder, Lessee may pay or tender such rentals to the credit of the deceased or the deceased until such time as Lessee is furnished with proper evidence of the appointment and qualifications of an executor or administrator of the estate, or if there be none, then until Lessee is furnished with evidence satisfactory to it as to the heirs or devices of the deceased, and that all debts of the estate have been paid. If at any time two or more persons be entitled to participate in the rental payable beremader, Lessee may pay or tender said rental jointly to such persons or to their joint credit in the depository named berein; or, at Lasse's election, the proportionate part of said rental to which each participant is entitled may be paid or tendered to him separately or to his separate credit in said depository; and payment or tender to any participant of his portion of the rentals hereunder shall maintain this lease as to such participant. In event of assignment of this lease as to a seggegated portion of said land, the rentals payable hereurder shall be apportionable as between the several leasehold owners ratably according to the surface area of each, and default in rental payment by one shall not affect the rights of other leasehold owners. all office of the stand of the form to death of the filtering of a south to the order decises stand in
