

We, Sarah Lewis Farris and John Marcus Moseley, agree before our marriage on December 11, 1981 that should either of us seek a divorce at any time during our marriage for any reason that the other will go along with his or her wishes and proceed with the divorce so that it can be carried out quickly and settled outside of court.

We further agree that should we divorce each other during the next ten years that John is obligated to pay Sarah as a settlement $10,000 for each year of marriage.
