TWELFTH: The corporation is authorized to issue only one (1) class of shares of stock. The number of shares is One Thousand (1,000). The aggregate par value of such shares is One Thousand and no/100 Dollars ($1,000.00) and the par value of each share is One and no/100 Dollars ($1.00).

THIRTEENTH: Any shareholders desiring to sell any shares of the corporation shall first offer such shares to the corporation and the other shareholders in the following manner:

1. Such shareholders shall give written notice by Registered Mail to the Secretary of the corporation of his intention to sell such shares. Said notice shall specify the number of shares to be sold, the price per share, and the terms upon which the sale is to be made. In the event that there is an uneven number of shares to be purchased by the existing shareholders, the corporation shall buy a number of shares equal to the amount required to allow an equal number of shares to be purchased by the existing shareholders. Such purchase may be authorized by the Board of Directors without any action by the shareholders of the corporation.

2. In the event that the corporation should fail to purchase all of such shares within the ten (10) day period, the Secretary of the corporation shall, within five (5) days thereafter give written notice to each of the other shareholders of record stating the number of shares offered for sale but not purchased by the corporation, the price per share, and the terms upon which the sale is being made. Such notice shall be sent by mail addressed to each shareholder at his last address as it appears on the books of the corporation. Within ten (10) days after the mailing of said notices, any shareholder desiring to purchase part or all of such shares shall deliver by mail or otherwise to the Secretary of the corporation a written offer for the number of shares desired by him accompanied by the purchase price thereof with authorization to pay such purchase price against delivery of such shares.

3. If the shareholders offer to purchase more than the total number of shares available for purchase by them, then the shareholders offering to purchase shall be entitled to purchase such portion of said shares as the number of shares of the corporation which he holds bears to the total number of shares held by all shareholders offering to purchase. In the event that the proportion of said shares to which any shareholder should be entitled to purchase is more than the number of shares he desires to purchase, each remaining shareholder desiring to purchase additional shares shall be entitled to purchase such proportion of the over plus as the number of shares which he holds bears to the total number of shares held by all shareholders desiring to participate.

4. If none or only a part of the shares offered for sale is purchased by the corporation or shareholders, or both, then the shareholder who offered the same for sale shall have thereafter, the right to sell the said shares not so purchased to such person or persons as he desires; provided, however, that he shall not sell such shares at a lower price or on terms more favorable to the purchaser than to those specified in the written notice he gave the corporation.

5. Any share of the stock of the corporation shall be null and void unless the provisions of this Article are strictly observed and followed. The stock certificates of the corporation shall be imprinted with the notice that there is a restrictive transfer of said shares of stock by the holder of said shares.

FOURTEENTH: The corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change, or repeal any or all of the provisions contained in this Certificate of Incorporation, in the manner now or hereafter prescribed by the Statute and all rights conferred upon stockholders and directors herein are granted subject to this reservation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned, the incorporators of this Corporation, including the person hereinabove named as First Directors and First Officers, have executed these Articles of Incorporation this the 2nd day of November, 1982.
