TO HAVE AND TO HOLD the above described property, together with the tenements and appurtenances belonging thereto or otherwise appertaining to the Mortgagee, the heirs or successors and assigns of Mortgagee in fee simple. And the Mortgagor covenants that the above described property is owned in fee simple and that Mortgagor has the right to sell and convey it; that the property is free from all liens and encumbrances and Mortgagor will warrant and will forever defend the title of this property to the Mortgagee, the heirs or successors and assigns of Mortgagee, from and against the lawful title, claims, and demands of all persons.

This conveyance is made upon the following conditions and stipulations:

The Mortgagor agrees to insure the buildings on the premises, and all other of the Mortgaged property which is insurable, in some responsible insurance company or companies against loss by fire, lightning, or wind-storm, for a sum equal to the indebtedness secured, with loss payable to Mortgagee as the interest of Mortgagee may appear. If the Mortgagor performs all of the stipulations and agreements and pays all of the indebtedness secured as it becomes payable, including interest thereon, then this conveyance shall be null and void; otherwise to remain in full force and effect; and upon failure of Mortgagor to keep any of the stipulations and agreements, or to pay any or all of the indebtedness when it becomes payable, then the Mortgagee may enter upon and take possession, sell the mortgaged property at public outcry in front of the Courthouse in the county where the property or a part thereof is located, to the highest bidder for cash, after first giving notice of the time, place, and terms of the sale together with a description of the property to be sold, by publication once a week for three successive weeks prior to the sale in some newspaper published in the county where the property or any material part thereof is located.
