bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in said share on the part of any other person, whether or not the Corporation shall have notice thereof.

ARTICLE XVI

Every person (and the heirs, executors and administrators of such person) who is or was an officer, director or employee of the Corporation, or of any other corporation which such person served as such at the request of the Corporation, and of which the Corporation directly or indirectly is a Shareholder or creditor, or in which, or in the stocks, bonds, securities or other obligations of which it is in any way interested, may in accordance with the second paragraph of this Article be indemnified by the Corporation against any and all liability and reasonable expense that may be incurred by such person in connection with or resulting from any claim, action, suit or proceeding (whether brought by or in the right of the Corporation or such other company or otherwise), civil or criminal, or in connection with an appeal relating thereto, in which such person may become involved, as a party or otherwise, by reason of such person being or having been an officer, director or employee of the Corporation or such other corporation, or by reason of any action taken or not taken by such person in such capacity, whether such person continues to be an officer, director or employee at the time such liability or expense shall have been incurred, provided such person acted in good faith in what such person reasonably believed to be the best interests of the Corporation or such other corporation, as the case may be, and, in addition, in any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe that such conduct was unlawful. As used herein, the terms "liability" and "expense" shall include, but shall not be limited to, counsel fees and disbursements and amounts of judgments, fines or penalties against, and amounts paid and settlements by or for such person. The termination of any claim, action, suit or proceeding, civil or criminal by judgment, settlement (whether with or without court approval) or conviction shall not create a presumption that such person does not meet the standards of conduct set forth herein.

Any indemnification hereunder shall be made at the discretion of the Corporation, but only if the Board of Directors (with no Director who is a party to or interested in such claim, action, suit or proceeding, participating) shall find that such person has met the standards of conduct set forth in the preceding paragraph. If two thirds or more of the Board of Directors are parties to or interested in such claim, action, suit or proceeding, the regular counsel for the Corporation shall determine whether such person has met such standards.

Expenses incurred with respect to any such claim, action, suit or proceeding may be advanced by the Corporation prior to the final disposition thereof upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such person to repay such amount unless it shall ultimately be determined that such person is entitled to indemnification hereunder.

The rights of indemnification provided in this Article shall be in addition to any rights to which any such person may otherwise be entitled under any by-law, agreement, vote of Shareholders, or otherwise.

ARTICLE XVII

The Directors and/or Shareholders may waive, in writing, any requirement under the laws of the State of Alabama (where the laws permit such waiver) for the holding of a formal meeting with respect to any business to be transacted by this Corporation, and may transact the business of the Corporation by resolution executed or consented to in writing by all of the Directors and/or Shareholders without the formality of a meeting, which resolution when so executed or consented to shall be valid and binding on this Corporation in the same manner as if a meeting had been called with respect to such action and notice issued, as provided by the laws of the State of Alabama.

ARTICLE XVIII

The private property of the Shareholder shall not be subject to payment of corporate debts to any extent whatsoever.

ARTICLE XIX

This Corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change or repeal any provisions contained in these Articles of Incorporation in the manner, now or hereafter prescribed by statute, and all rights conferred on Shareholders herein are granted subject to this reservation.
