Carleen Embry, being duly sworn, on oath, deposes and says:

1. My name is Carleen Embry. I am a life-long resident of Vincent, Shelby County, Alabama. I will be ninety years of age in June, 1985. I am a single person. I have known and been familiar with the property hereinafter described since I was about seven years old. I have lived and made my home on said property for about eighty years.

2. Dr. J. C. Embry was my father and his wife, Nannie F. Embry, was my mother. They bought the property hereinafter described about 1902 and built their home on it the next year. They had three children, namely, myself, Carleen Embry, J. Howard Embry, my only brother, and Lynda Embry Florey, my only sister. My mother, Nannie F. Embry, died about May 19, 1910. My father, Dr. J. C. Embry, died about August 21, 1951. By Will, my father left his homeplace, the property hereinafter described, to me, my brother and my sister. My brother, J. Howard Embry, died about November 14, 1968, and the property hereinafter described was devised to me and my sister, Lynda Embry Florey. My sister, Lynda Embry Florey, died about September 8, 1981. However, before her death she deeded said property to me by warranty deed dated August 21, 1969. The hereinafter described property has been assessed and all ad valorem taxes due thereon have been paid. I acquired title to the hereinafter described property by inheritance, devise, deed, control, use, possession, ownership, and the assessment and payment of taxes.

3. After purchasing the hereinafter described property my parents built their home on it and constructed a barn, smokehouse, chicken house and servants' house on it. They fenced in all of said property hereinafter described, had a garden, milk cows, hogs and horses thereon. My parents and their named children, including myself, after the death of our parents, at all times pertinent and without interruption, owned and had the actual, exclusive, open, notorious, hostile, adverse and peaceful use and possession of said property and assessed it and paid the ad valorem taxes thereon since, to-wit: 1902, up to and including the present. At no time has any claim to any part of said property, namely, been asserted or voiced by any person, entity or authority of any kind. As a matter of personal knowledge, I know that no avenues or streets have been or are included in the property described hereinabove.

4. At all times pertinent your affiant and her family have had the quiet and peaceful possession, use, control and ownership of the property described hereinabove.

5. Your affiant, Carleen Embry, is now and for more than fifteen years has been the sole and exclusive owner of the hereinabove described property.

Given under my hand and seal this 25th day of February, 1985.
