discharge the entire indebtedness and all proper costs and expenses secured thereby.

3. For the benefit of the Mortgagee, the buildings on said Premises shall be constantly insured against loss by fire and other hazards, casualities and contingencies, extended coverage, and other such coverage, in such manner and in such companies and for such amounts as may be required by the Mortgagee, with loss, if any, payable to Mortgagee, as its interest may appear, and the Mortgager does hereby transfer, assign, set over and deliver to the Mortgagee the fire and other insurance policies covering said property, and it is further agreed that all of the security for said indebtedness shall pass to, and become the property of, the purchaser at any foreclosure sale hereunder, without the necessity of notice, sale, deed or other proceedings in consummation of such foreclosure, and if the Mortgagor fails to keep said property insured as above specified then the Mortgagee may, at its option, insure said property for its insurable value, against loss by fire and other hazards, above specified then the Mortgagee may, at its option, insure said property for its insurable value, against loss by fire and other hazards, casualties and contingencies, for its own benefit, and any amount which may be expended for premiums on such insurance policies shall be secured by the lien of this mortgage and bear interest from the date of payment by the Mortgagee; it being understood and agreed between the parties hereto that any sum, or sums, of money received for any damage by fire or other casualty to any building, or buildings, herein conveyed may be retained by the then holder of the indebtedness secured by this mortgage and applied toward payment of such indebtedness, either in

4. The Premises and the improvements thereon shall be kept in good condition and no waste committed or permitted thereon, natural wear and tear excepted, and all taxes and assessments or other charges, which may be levied upon or accrue against the Premises, as well as all other sums which may be or become liens or charges against the same, shall be paid and discharged by the undersigned promptly as and when so levied or assessed and shall not be permitted to become delinquent or to take priority over the lien of this mortgage.

whole or in part, or, at the option of the holder of said debt, same may be paid over to a trustee, to be named by the Mortgagee, its successors or assigns, to be applied in payment for any repair or replacement of such building, or buildings, or for any other purpose or object satisfactory to

5. Any claim of lien which may be filed under the provisions of the Statutes of Alabama, relating to the liens of mechanics or materialmen, shall be promptly paid and discharged by the undersigned and shall not be permitted to take priority over the lien of this mortgage.

6. That any and all legal requirements, of any governmental agency wherein the Premises are located, shall be fully complied with by the Mortgagor.

7. Should default be made in the payment of any insurance premium, taxes, assessments or other liens, or any other sum, as herein provided, the Mortgagee or assigns shall be authorized to pay same and the sum, or sums, so paid shall be and become a part of the indebtedness secured by the mortgage, or the Mortgagee or assigns may take possession of the Premises, collect the rents due or to become due thereon and apply same in payment of such delinquent taxes, assessments or other liens or, upon application made to any court of competent jurisdiction, be entitled as a matter of right to the appointment of a receiver of the rents, issues and profits to be derived therefrom and with power to lease and control the Premises for the benefit of the Mortgagee or, at its option, the Mortgagee may declare the whole of said power to lease and payable at once and the mortgage may be foreclosed as hereinafter provided, but no delay or failure of the mortgagee to exercise this right or any other option herein shall be deemed a waiver of such right.

8. The Mortgagor agrees to pay reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses incurred by the Mortgagee in applying for a receiver, in protecting its interest in any litigation involving this real estate, in presenting claim under any administration or other proceeding where proof of claims is required by law to be filed, or in foreclosing this mortgage by suit in any court of competent jurisdiction, such fees and expenses to be a part of the debt hereby secured.

9. It is further agreed that if the Mortgagor shall fail to pay or cause to be paid in whole, or any portion, of the principal sum, or any installment of interest thereon, and any extensions or renewals thereof, or any other sum, the payment of which is hereby secured, as they or any of them mature, either by lapse of time or otherwise, in accordance with the agreements and covenants herein contained, or should default be made in the payment of any mechanic's lien, materialmens' lien, insurance premiums, taxes or assessments now, or which may hereafter be, levied against, or which may become a lien on said property, or should default be made in any of the covenants, conditions and agreements herein contained or in the construction loan agreement of even date herewith, then and in that event the whole of said principal sum, with interest thereon, and all other sums secured hereby shall, at the option of the then holder of said indebtedness, be and become immediately due and payable, and the holder of the debt secured shall have the right to enter upon and take possession of said property and sell after or without taking such possession of the same at public outcry, in whole or in parcels, in front of the Court House door of the county wherein said property is located, to the highest bidder for eash, either in person or by auctioneer, after first giving notice of the time, place and terms of such sale by publication once a week for three successive weeks in some newspaper published in said county, and, upon the payment of the purchase money, shall execute to the purchaser at said sale a deed to the property so purchased, the proceeds of such sale shall be applied (1) to the expenses incurred in making the sale, including a reasonable attorney's fee for such services as may be necessary, in the collection of said indebtedness or the foreclosure of the mortgage; (2) to the payment of whatever sum, or sums, the Mortgagee may have paid out or become liable to pay, in carrying out the provisions of this mortgage, together with interest thereon: (3) to the payment and satisfaction of said principal indebtedness and interest thereon to the day of sale and the balance, if any, shall be paid over to the Mortgagor, or assigns. Or said Mortgage may be foreclosed as now provided by law in case of past due mortgages, in which event a reasonable attorney's fee shall, among other expenses and costs, be allowed and paid out of the proceeds of the sale of said property. In any event, the purchaser under any foreclosure sale, as provided herein, shall be under no obligation to see to the proper application of the purchase money and the Mortgagee or the then holder of the indebtedness hereby secured may become the purchaser at said sale and the auctioneer making the sale is hereby authorized and empowered to execute a deed in the name and on behalf of the Mortgagor to such purchaser, and the certificate of the holder of such indebtedness, appointing said auctioneer to make such sale, shall be prima facie evidence of his authority in the premises. Mortgagee shall also have all rights and remedies of a secured party under the Alabama Uniform Commercial Code.

10. In the event of the enactment of any law, Federal or State, after the date of this mortgage, deducting from the value of the land for the purposes of taxation any lien thereon, or imposing any liability upon the Mortgages, in respect of the indebtedness secured hereby, or changing in any way the laws now in force for the taxation of mortgages, or debts secured by mortgages, or the manner of collection of any such taxes, so as to affect this mortgage, the whole of the principal sum secured by this mortgage, together with the interest due thereon, shall, at the option of the Mortgagee, without notice to any party, become immediately due and payable.
