of any class. Any such unissued stock or any such additional authorized issue of new stock or of securities convertible into stock or carrying any rights to purchase stock, may be issued and disposed of pursuant to resolutions of the board of directors of this corporation to such persons, firms, corporations or association, and upon such terms, as may be deemed advisable by the board of directors in the exercise of its discretion.

8. This corporation may, from time to time, lawfully enter into any agreement to which all, or less than all, the holders of record of the issued and outstanding shares of its capital stock shall be parties, restricting the transfer of any or all shares of its capital stock represented by certificates therefor upon such reasonable terms and conditions as may be approved by the board of directors of this corporation, provided that such restrictions be stated upon each certificate representing such shares.

9. The bylaws of the corporation shall contain provisions for the regulation and management of the affairs of the corporation not inconsistent with the laws of the State of Alabama. The initial bylaws of the corporation shall be adopted by the stockholders. The bylaws of the corporation shall be subject to alternation, admendment or repeal, and new bylaws may be adopted by the affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of the common stock present in person or by proxy at any annual or special meeting of the stockholders and entitled to vote thereat, a quorum being present. No amendment decreasing the number of directors shall have the effect of shortening the term of any incumbent director. The bylaws may also be amended in the interim between stockholders' meetings by a marjority vote of the board of directors may not alter, amend, or repeal any bylaw establishing the number of directors, the number of directors constituting a quorum at a meeting of the board of directors, the time of place of stockholder' meetings, or what constitutes a quorum at such stockholders' meetings.

10. The corporation powers shall be excerised by the board of directors, except as otherwise provided by statute or by this certificate of incorporation. Any action required or permitted to be taken at any meeting of the board of directors or any committee thereof may be taken without a meeting, if prior to such action a written consent thereto is signed by all members of the board or of such committee, as the case may be, and such written consent is filed with the minutes of proceedings of the board or committee. In furtherance and not in limitation of the powers conferred by statute, the board of directors is expressly authorized to fix and determine and to vary the amount of working capital of the corporation to determine the date or dates for the declaration and payment of dividend, and to direct and determine the use and disposition of any surplus or net profits over and above the capital stock paid in. The corporation may, in its bylaws, confer powers upon its board of directors in addition to the foregoing, and in addition to the powers and authorities expressly conferred upon directors by statute.

11. (a) Subject to the provisions of subsections.

(d) Hereof, the corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party, or is threatened to be made a party, to any threatened, pending or completed claim, action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, including appeals (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation), by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, partner, employee joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fee), judgments fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgement, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

(b) Subject to the provisions of subsection (d) hereof, the corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party, or is threatened to be made a party, to any threatened, pending or completed claim, action or suit by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgement in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, partner, employee agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including attorneys' fee) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his duty to the corporation unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances to indemnify for such expenses which such court shall deem proper.

(c) To the extent that a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in subsection (a) or (b) of this section, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys' fee) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith, notwithstanding that he has not been successful on any other claim, issue or matter in any such action, suit or proceeding.

(d) Any indemnification under subsection (a) or (b) shall (unless ordered by court) be made by the corporation only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the director, officer, employee or agent is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in subsection (a) or (b), as the case may be. Such determination shall be made (1) by the board of directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to, or who have been wholly successful on the merits or otherwise with respect to, such claim, action, suit or proceeding, or (2) if such a quorum is not obtained, or, even, if obtained, if a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or (3) by the stockholders.

(e) Expenses (including attorneys' fee) incurred in defending a civil or criminal claim, action, suit or proceeding may be paid by the corporation in advance of the final disposition of such claim, action, suit or proceeding as authorized in the manner provided in the proceeding subsection (d) upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director, officer, employee or agent to repay such amount if and to the extent it shall ultimately be determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation as authorized in the section.

(f) The indemnification provided by this section shall be in addition to , any other right to which those indemnified may be entitled under any statute, rule of law, provision in the corporation's certificate of incorporation, bylaw, agreement, vote of stockholders or disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in his official capacity and as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person.

(g) The corporation shall have the power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, officer, partner, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of this section.

12. The corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change or repeal and provision contained in this certificate of incorporation in the manner now or hereafter provided by law, and all rights conferred upon officers, directors and stockholders herein are granted subject to this reservation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned incorporators have hereunto subscribed their signatures to this certificate of incorporation this the 16th day of September 1986
