JACK I. GILLESPIE, JR.,

DEFENDANTS

LIS PENDENS NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that on the 12th day of February, 1987, suit was begun by Shelby County, Alabama, a political subdivision of the State of Alabama, as plaintiff, in the Circuit Court of Shelby County, Alabama, Civil Action No. CV-87-065, which was filed against Ricky Wayne Seale, Gulf States Paper Corporation, a corporation, Steve Meyers, James W. Martin, and Jack I. Gillespie, Jr., the Complaint in said suit alleging that the hereinafter described lands in Shelby County, Alabama, have been improperly subdivided by the defendants, as owners and developers, in violation of the Subdivision Regulations, Shelby County, Alabama, and in violation of Act No. 82-693, and in violation of Act No. 84-454, and in violation of other applicable laws, said suit praying that said defendants be enjoined from selling, conveying, or otherwise encumbering said hereinafter described property, or any part thereof, in violation of said Subdivision Regulations and other applicable laws; the plaintiff further seeks an order from the Court requiring the defendants to submit a subdivision plan or plans to Shelby County Planning Commission for the development of said lands, to contain the provisions for roads, streets, drainage, and all other requirements which are necessary to meet the minimum standards of the Subdivision Regulations, Shelby County, Alabama, and further seeks an order from the Court requiring said defendants to effect the completion of said plans, and to complete such erection, construction or placement as is reasonably necessary to conform to said Regulations, or in the alternative, that the Court will require the said defendants to pay monetary damages, and further, the plaintiff claims a lien on lands of the defendants to insure the performance by the defendants with the orders and judgments of the Court and with applicable laws and regulations in this cause.

Said lands are more particularly described as follows:
