CASE NO. DR 85-678

FINAL DECREE

This cause was heard on January 13, 1987 on the wife's complaint for divorce. The wife appeared with counsel and the husband appeared pro se. Sworn testimony and other evidence was then presented and the Court does find and order as follows:

1. That the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between Linda M. Atchison and Phillip W. Atchison are hereby dissolved, and the said parties are forever divorced from one another on the grounds of incompatibility of temperament and an irretrievable breakdown of the marriage relation.

2. That neither party shall again marry except to each other until sixty days after the date of this decree. If an appeal from this decree is taken within forty-two days neither party shall marry again except to each other during the pendency of said appeal.

3. That the costs of Court accrued herein are hereby taxed against the husband for the collection of which execution may issue and if returned "no property found" then execution for costs may issue against the wife.

4. That each party had a child by a prior marriage, but none by this marriage and the wife is not pregnant.

5. That each party is awarded the personal property that they currently have in their possession, and each is awarded any automobile that they have in their possession, and shall pay any remaining indebtedness on these automobiles, and hold the other harmless from any claim or liability thereon. Further the husband is awarded the horse, (Miss Ellie) and the wife is awarded the horse, (Prince Booger Man). The Court finds that the wife has sold the rest of the horses that the parties owned.

6. That the parties' homeplace was located at 434 Alice Street in Bessemer. This home has been foreclosed.

7. That the wife shall pay $200.00 on the debt to MasterCard and $700.00 on the debt to American Express and any remaining indebtedness to Coosa Valley Milling. The Husband shall pay any and all indebtedness of the marriage other than that required of the wife. Furthermore he shall indemnify and hold harmless the wife from any claims by the National Bank of Commerce against the wife which resulted from her withdrawing funds from his banking accounts. These provisions are considered as a property settlement and alimony en gross.

8. That the husband shall, within ninety (90) days from the date of the final decree, pay to the wife through the office of her attorney, the Honorable James Holliman, $2,000.00, which the Court finds to be a reasonable fee for his services in this cause.

Done and Ordered this the 16th day of March, 1987.
