AFFIDAVIT

Before me, the undersigned Notary Public, personally appeared Mary Shirley Pennington, who being first duly sworn and deposed, saith as follows: My name is Mary Shirley Pennington, I am over 21 years of age and under no legal disability. I reside at Lot 10, Crestwood Manor, Montevallo, Alabama 35115. I knew Willie Frances Brantley for thirteen (13) years prior to her death, having been associated with her and her family on a social basis during that time. The said Willie Frances Brantley died on or about March 17, 1987 while living in Shelby County, Alabama. She was married one time to Clark Tollie Brantley who pre-deceased her and who was never married nor had any children other than with Willie Frances Brantley. At the time of her death, Willie Frances Brantley left as her heirs at law, a daughter, Shirley O. Brantley, who is still alive and legally competent. She left a son, William Clark Brantley, who is alive and legally competent. She also left another son, Joe B. Brantley, who is alive and legally competent. She also had a daughter, Billie Ruth Brantley Elliott, who died November 28, 1961. At the time of her death, Billie Ruth Brantley Elliott was divorced and had one child, Patsy Lee Brantley McCartney, who is alive and legally competent. Billie Ruth Brantley Elliott had no other children of her body. Willie Frances Brantley had three other children who died in infancy and without heirs.
