AFFIDAVIT

Before me, the undersigned Notary Public, personally appeared John W. Bayliss, who being first duly sworn and deposed, saith as follows: My name is John W. Bayliss, I am over twenty-one (21) years of age and under no legal disability. I reside at Rt. 4 Box 1452, Alabaster, Alabama 35007. I knew Austin L. Cox for nearly twenty (20) years prior to his death, having been associated with him and his family on a social basis, as well as being a neighbor, during that time. The said Austin L. Cox died on or about May 27, 1963 while living in Shelby County, Alabama. I knew Polly Cox Partridge for over forty (40) years prior to her death, having been associated with her and her family on a social basis, as well as a neighbor, during that time. The said Polly Cox Partridge died on or about February 22, 1988 while living in Shelby County, Alabama. The said Austin L. Cox and Polly Cox Partridge were married to each other and remained married until the said Austin L. Cox died on May 27, 1963. The said marriage of Austin L. Cox and Polly Cox Partridge produced three children only, namely, Ronald W. Cox, Jerry W. Cox and David L. Cox. All of said children are still alive and legally competent. After the death of Austin L. Cox, Polly Cox Partridge married Grady Partridge on September 3, 1966. The said Grady Partridge died on or about December 19, 1972. The marriage of Polly Cox Partridge and Grady Partridge produced no children.

Done this 3rd day of March, 1988.
