AFFIDAVIT

Before me, the undersigned authority, in and for said County and State, personally appeared Roy Wooley who, being known to me and being by me first duly sworn, deposes and says as follows:

My name is Roy Wooley, and I reside in the Aldrich Community and my mailing address is P.O. Box 485, Montevallo, Alabama. I am 74 years old. My wife and I moved to the Aldrich Community in 1944. I have lived continuously in the Aldrich Community from the spring of 1944 to the current date. George Thomas Jarvis and his wife, Bessie Mae Jarvis, were friends of mine. I first met George Thomas Jarvis and his wife in the late 1930's. Mr. Jarvis worked for the Montevallo Coal Mining Company. Mr. Jarvis, his wife, and family moved into the five room frame dwelling, known as House No. 15, on Lot 3, in Block 2, according to the Thomas Addition to the Town of Aldrich, as recorded in Map Book 3, page 52, in the Probate Office of Shelby County, Alabama in the fall of 1943. They occupied this property under a lease sale contract with Montevallo Coal Mining Company. In November of 1945, George Thomas Jarvis and his wife became the owners of the property. They occupied and possessed the house and property continuously and exclusively for more than 40 years until their respective deaths. The property occupied by them was known as the Jarvis homeplace and is located on Shelby County Highway Road 10 which was formerly known as the Boothton Road. George Thomas Jarvis and his wife occupied and owned the house and land since the time that I first knew the property. Since 1943 it has been occupied by them as their family residence actually, exclusively, openly, notoriously, hostilely, and continuously, and I have never heard the
