extent as natural persons might or could do, to aid by loan, subsidy, guaranty, or in any other manner, financially or otherwise, and to do any other acts or things designed to protect, preserve, improve or enhance the value of any such property.

(9) To purchase, exchange, take, receive, or otherwise acquire, to own, hold, use or otherwise have an interest in or deal with, to sell, exchange, convey, assign, mortgage, pledge, hypothecate, distribute or otherwise deal in or dispose of, shares of its own stock provided that the Corporation shall not purchase, directly or indirectly, shares of its own stock where such purchase would be prohibited by the Alabama Business Corporation Act or this Articles of Incorporation and provided that the Corporation shall not vote, directly or indirectly, shares of its own stock except as provided by said Act.

(10) To lend money or aid, or extend credit, to any person, firm, corporation, country, state, county, municipality, or governmental unit, department, division, agency, authority or instrumentality on such terms and conditions and with whatever security, if any, it desires.

(11) To enter into and make, to perform and carry out, to cancel and rescind, or to let lapse, contracts and agreements of every kind and description.

(12) To act as agent, representative, or receiver of any person, firm, corporation, country, state, county, municipality or governmental unit, department, division, agency, authority or instrumentality or in respect to any lawful undertaking or transaction.

(13) To borrow or raise money and, from time to time, without limit as to amount, to draw, make, accept, endorse, execute, issue and deliver all kinds of securities, including, but without limiting the generality thereof, bonds, debentures, drafts, bills of exchange, warrants, notes and other negotiable and non-negotiable instruments and evidences of obligation or indebtedness; and to secure the payment and full performance of such mortgage on, or pledge, conveyance, or assignment in trust of, all, or any part of, or any interest in, the property of the corporation, either real, personal or mixed, including contract rights, whether at the time owned or thereafter acquired.

(14) To guarantee the obligations of, and to lend its aid and credit to, any person, firm, corporation, country, state, county, municipality, or governmental unit, department, division, agency, authority, or instrumentality, and to secure the same by mortgage on, or pledge, conveyance, or assignment in trust of, all, any part of, or any interest in, the property of the corporation, either real, personal or mixed, including contract rights, whether at the time owned or thereafter acquired.

(15) To enter into with any one or more persons, firms, corporations, countries, states, counties, municipalities or governmental units, departments, divisions, agencies, authorities or instrumentalities (1) any lawful arrangement for sharing profits, union of interest, reciprocal association, or cooperative association, or (2) any general or limited partnership.

(16) To lend money and use its credit to assist its employees.

(17) To pay pensions and establish pension plans, pension trusts, profit sharing plans, stock bonus plans, stock option plans and other incentive plans for any or all of its Directors, Officers and employees.

(18) To be a promoter, incorporator, partner, member, trustee, associate, or manager of any domestic or foreign corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise.

(19) To conduct its business, carry on its operations and have offices and exercise the powers granted by the Alabama Business Corporation Act, within or without the State of Alabama.

(20) To elect or appoint officers and agents of the Corporation, and define their duties and fix their compensation.

(21) To make and alter By-Laws, not inconsistent with the Articles of Incorporation or with the laws of the State of Alabama, for the administration and regulation of the affairs of the Corporation.

(22) The foregoing clauses may be construed both as objects and powers, and it is hereby expressly provided that the foregoing enumerations of specific powers shall not be held to limit or restrict in any manner the power of the Corporation.

(23) To do any and all things herein set forth, and in addition, such other acts and things as are necessary, or convenient to attainment of the purposes of this Corporation, or any of them, to the same extent as natural persons might or could do in any part of the world, insofar as such are permitted to be done by Corporations organized under the Alabama Business Corporation Act.

(24) In addition to the objects aforesaid, the corporation shall have the power to conduct and carry on any business or activity not prohibited by law, nor required by law to be specifically stated in these Articles.

(25) This Corporation shall have all other rights, powers, authority, and privileges which may be now or hereafter enjoyed by similar corporations under the present and future laws of the State of Alabama.
