HOMEOWNER'S CASH RESERVE - 3 YEAR ADJUSTABLE PLAN

GENERALLY: This is an agreement about your home equity line of credit. Many of the terms we use in this agreement have special meanings. The term "loan account balance" means the sum of the unpaid principal of loans made under so this plan, plus unpaid but earned finance charges, plus any credit insurance premiums that are due. "Transaction Account" means an account you carry with us. The number of this account is listed at the top of the form on the line labeled "Trans. Acct. #." "Line of Credit" means the maximum amount of principal we will ordinarily allow you to owe us under this plan at any time.

In addition, we will use the following terms for this home equity plan: "Minimum Advance" means the smallest amount of money we will advance to you at your request.

If any term of this agreement violates any law or for some other reason is not enforceable, that term will not be part of this agreement. This agreement is subject to the laws of the state where we are located.

TAX DEDUCTIBILITY: You should consult a tax advisor regarding the deductibility ுof interest and charges under this home equity plan.

REQUESTING A LOAN: You request a loan under this plan whenever you:

· write a check for at least the minimum advance listed above using one of the special checks you have for that purpose.

request in person or by phone that you be advanced directly an amount at

--- I least as large as the minimum advance listed above.

HOW FINANCE CHARGES ARE COMPUTED: To calculate your finance charge and average daily balance, we first determine the daily balance of your loan for each period where there is a balance change or a rate change. Balance "1 changes may be due to advances or debits on your account, which are added wito the balance, or payments or credits, which are subtracted from the balance. Rate changes will occur as often as the base rate changes (refer to terms and conditions of the variable rate and interest rate option paragraphs below for scheduled rate changes). For the period during which the appropriate balance applies, we determine the number of days active and multiply the sum of the days active times the daily balance to determine the periodic daily balance. Then we calculate the daily periodic rate (interest rate divided by the number of days in the year) for the period which applies to the periodic daily balance. This ligure is multiplied times the periodic daily balance to determine the amount of finance charge which applies to the periodic daily balance. Then we add all of the periodic daily balances and divide by the sum of the number of days active to determine the average daily balance. The finance charges which applies to each periodic daily balance are totaled to determine the amount of finance charge calculated for the billing cycle. The number of days in each billing cycle varies depending upon the number of calendar days in each month covered by the billing cycle. The billing cycle ends on the statement date listed on the front of your monthly statement and begins on the first day after the previous statement date.

The amount of finance charge listed on the front of your monthly statement is based upon daily balances from the beginning to the end of the current abilling cycle, calculated in accordance with the preceding paragraph. Any Designation of the minimum monthly payment listed on the front the monthly statement will be applied to any finance charge accrued from the end of the statement cycle to the payment posting day, then any remainder will be applied to the principal balance. Finance charges in the succeeding month reflected on your statement will continue to be calculated in accordance with the above paragraph, however, the amount you actually owe in finance Charge will consider previous payments in excess on the minimum payment, which were applied to any finance charge accrued to the payment posting dale.

The periodic rate of FINANCE CHARGE today is __03287 % which is equal to an ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE of _12.00 %.

VARIABLE RATE: The annual percentage rate may change, and will be 2.0% above the following "base rate": The Wall Street Journal Prime Rate. The annual percentage rate may increase if this "base rate" increases. An increase will take effect every 36 months. An increase will result in an increase in the finance charge and it may have the effect of increasing your periodic minimum payment. The annual percentage rate will not increase more often than once every 36 months. A decrease will have the opposite effect of an increase disclosed above

If the base rate changes more frequently than the annual percentage rate, we will always use the base rate in effect on the day we adjust the annual percentage rate to determine the new annual percentage rate. In such a case, we will ignore any changes in the base rate that occur between annual percentage rate adjustments. The "annual percentage rate" referred to in this section is the annual rate which corresponds to the periodic rate applied to the balance as described above. This corresponding ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE will never exceed 18%, and will never exceed the highest allowable rate for this type of agreement as determined by applicable state or federal law.

The ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATE will never decrease below 8%.

ADJUSTMENT FREQUENCY CONVERSION: On the third anniversary date of this agreement, and each three (3) year period thereafter, you may elect to convert this Homeowner's Cash Reserve plan to one with a monthly adjustment term. It is understood that the original term will not be altered by the adjustments. If you do so, you must sign a new Homeowner's Cash Reserve agreement.

MINIMUM CHARGE: If, during a billing cycle, you have any outstanding principal balance at all and if the finance charge computed above is less than $.50, you will be charged a minimum FINANCE CHARGE of $.50 for that billing cycle.

HOW YOU REPAY YOUR LOANS: On or before each payment date, you agree to make a minimum payment to reduce your debt. The minimum monthly payment will equal 1.5% of the loan account balance (principal plus accrued finance charges) on the last day of the billing cycle or $50.00, whichever is greater.

FINAL PAYMENT: On the maturity date listed above, you must pay the amount of any remaining loan account balance outstanding. The minimum payment will not fully repay the principal that is outstanding on your line. At that time you:

K may be required to pay the entire balance in a single balloon payment. (The amount of your line of credit, the timing of your payments and your pattern of advances all affect whether you will have to make such a

: will be required to pay the entire balance in a single balloon payment.

If you have any loan account balance at that time, we are not obligated to refinance your account, but will consider your request to do so. If you refinance this account at maturity, you may have to pay some or all of the closing costs normally associated with a new loan even if you obtain financing from us.

SECURITY: To secure the payment of what you owe, we have the right of set-off. This means we can pay the amount you owe us out of money that we are required to pay you (such as money in your savings or checking account). However, we cannot use in this way money in your TRA or other tax-deferred retirement account. State law may further limit our right of set-off.

However, we will have no right of set-off against your loan account balance if you can obtain credit under this plan by using a debit or a credit card.

We have also secured your obligations under this plan by taking a security interest (by way of a separate security agreement, mortgage or other instrument dated September 28, 1990) in the following property, described by item or type:

HOW THE LOAN IS ADVANCED: When you request a loan, we will, subject to any limitations contained in this agreement, advance exactly the amount you request, so long as the requested amount equals or exceeds the minimum advance listed on the front of the form. We will make the advance by depositing the amount in your transaction account, by advancing the money directly to you, or by paying a designated third person or account, depending on how we agree to make the advance. We will record the amount as a loan in your loan account.

If your request is for less than the minimum advance, we may, at our option, grant the request. However, granting the request does not mean we will be required to grant requests for less than the minimum advance in the future. We always have the option to deny any such request.

However, we will not ordinarily grant any request for a loan which would cause the unpaid principal of your loan account balance to be greater than the Line of Credit listed on the front of the form. We may, at our option, grant such a request without obligating ourselves to do so in the luture.

ADDITIONAL REPAYMENT TERMS: You can pay off all or part of what you owe at any time without penalty. However, so long as you owe any amount you must continue to make your periodic minimum payment.

The amounts you pay will first reduce the finance charges, and finally will reduce the amount of unpaid loans.

CHANGING THE TERMS OF THIS AGREEMENT: Generally, we may not change the terms of this agreement. However, we may change the terms in the following circumstances: . If this is a variable rate plan, we may change the index and margin if the original index described above becomes unavailable. Any new index will have a historical movement similar to the original, and, together with a new margin, will produce a similar interest rate. We may make changes that you have agreed to in writing.

We may make changes that unequivocally benefit you.

We may make changes to insignificant terms of this agreement.

If we are required to send notice of a change in terms, we will send the notice to your address listed above. (You should inform us of any change in address.)

DEFAULT AND REMEDIES: You will be in default on this agreement if any of the following occur: (1) You engage in Iraud or material misrepresentation, by your actions or failure to act, in connection with any phase of this home equity line of credit:

(2) Subject to any right to cure you may have, you do not meet the repayment

(3) Your action or inaction adversely affects the collateral or our rights in the collateral, including but not limited to: (a) failure to maintain required insurance on the dwelling; (b) your transfer of the property; (c) failure to maintain the property or use of it in a destructive manner; (d) commission of waste; (e) failure to pay taxes on the property or otherwise fail to act and thereby cause a lien to be filed against the property that is senior to our lien; (f) death; (g) the property is taken through eminent domain; (h) a judgment is filed against you and subjects you and the property to action that adversely affects our interest; or (i) a prior lien holder forecloses on the property and as a result, our interest is adversely affected.

We may terminate your account, require you to pay the entire outstanding u- balance in one payment and charge you a termination fee (if provided for on the other side of this agreement), and fees related to the collection of the amount owing, if you are in default in any manner described above. In that instance, we may take other action short of termination, such as charging you a fee it you fail to maintain required property insurance and we purchase insurance. If we elect to terminate and accelerate the amounts owing on your account, we may use our right to set-off, unless prohibited.

Even if we choose not to use one of our remedies when you default, we do not forfeit our right to do so if you default again. If we do not use a remedy when you default, we can still consider your actions as a default in the future.

SUSPENSION OF CREDIT AND REDUCTION OF CREDIT LIMIT: We may temporarily prohibit you from obtaining additional extensions of credit, or .. reduce your credit limit if:

(1) The value of the dwelling securing this home equity line of credit declines significantly below its appraised value for purposes of this line;

(2) We reasonably believe you will not be able to meet the repayment requirements due to a material change in your financial circumstances;

(3) You are in default of a material obligation of this agreement, which shall include, but is not limited to, your ongoing obligation to supply us with information we feel we need to assess your linancial condition;

(4) A governmental action prevents us from imposing the annual percentage

(5) The action of a governmental body adversely effects our security interest to the extent that the value of the security interest is less than 1909 and home equity line:

(6) The annual percentage rate corresponding to the periodic rate reaches the maximum rate allowed under this plan (if provided for on the other side of this agreement); or (7) A regulatory agency has notified us that continued advances would constitute an unsate business practice.

In the event that we suspend your right to additional advances or reduce Syour credit line, we will send you notice of our decision at the address listed abon the front of this agreement. (You should inform us of any change in your address.) If we have based our decision to suspend or reduce your credit privileges on an assessment of your financial condition or performance under this plan, and you believe that your situation has changed, you must request that we re-evaluate your situation, and reinstate your credit privileges.

CREDIT INFORMATION: You agree to supply us with whatever information we reasonably feel we need to decide whether to continue this plan. We agree to make requests for this information without undue frequency, and to give you reasonable time in which to supply the information.

You authorize us to make or have made any credit inquiries we feel are necessary. You also authorize the persons or agencies to whom we make these inquiries to supply us with the information we request.

PROPERTY INSURANCE: You are required to obtain and maintain insurance on the improvements on the real property which is collateral for your account. The insurance policy must name us as mortgagee and must provide for at teast 10 days notice to us prior to cancellation. We may also require flood damage insurance. You may provide such insurance through an existing policy or a policy independently obtained and paid by you. If you fail to maintain insurance on the property you have mortgaged to secure your account, we may (but are under no obligation to) purchase such insurance and charge the cost to your account.

PERIODIC STATEMENT: You will be mailed a periodic statement each month. You agree to notify us in writing within 60 days of our mailing the periodic statement to you of any errors or questions respecting your account. The periodic statement will show the outstanding balance on your account at the beginning of the billing cycle called the "Previous Balance" the amount, date and a brief description of each advance or other charge debited your account during the billing cycle; the amount, date and a brief description of any payments or credits to your account; the amount of any finance charge debited to your account during the billing cycle; and the outstanding balance of your account on the closing date of the billing cycle called the "New Balance." A billing cycle shall be the period commencing on the beginning of a particular day of one month and ending on the close of the date immediately preceding the corresponding day in the next month.
