Will and Testament of Hester M. Perryman

I, Hester M. Perryman, being of sound mind and disposing memory, hereby make this, my last will and testament, hereby revoking any and all wills that I may have made in the past.

ITEM I

I direct that my just debts be paid, and such amonument erected over my grave as my executor thinks proper.

ITEM II

I direct that all my personal property of whatever kind go to my Son John L. Dukes and my Niece Cloytee Thigpen, in equal amounts.

ITEM III

I direct all my real estate, wherever situated, shall go to my Husband George Perryman for the term of his natural life, and at his death go to my Son John L. Dukes and my Niece Cloytee Thigpen in equal shares, as tenants in common.

ITEM IV

I appoint my son, John L. Dukes, as my executor, and ask the Court that he be not required to execute any bond as said executor, and he is hereby excused from making any inventory, or making any appraisal of any part of the property, and he shall not be required to file any partial or complete settlement of any sort in any Court, nor make any final report at any time to any Court.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand, and have asked that those named below as witnesses sign as witnesses, and I have signed same in their presence, and they have signed same in my presence and in the presence of each other. This the _____ day of January, 1950.
