KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS,

That in consideration of One Dollar, ($1.00) and other good and valuable consideration to the undersigned grantor (whether one or more), in hand paid by the grantee herein, the receipt whereof is acknowledged, I or we, FRANCES S. ALEXANDER, a widow; JAMES R. ALEXANDER, a married man; BARBARA ANN WILLIAMS, a married woman; and GEORGIA CAROL BEARDEN, a married woman

(herein referred to as grantor, whether one or more), grant, bargain, sell and convey unto

FRANCES S. ALEXANDER

(herein referred to as grantee, whether one or more), the following described real estate, situated in SHELBY County, Alabama, to-wit:

The South half of Lot 18 Block 1 of the Town of Wilton, Alabama, according to survey by C. E. Boseman, C. E. for Maj. Joseph Hardie, less a 10 foot right-of-way over the West side of said Lot.

The herein described real estate does not constitute the homestead of any of the above designated Grantors, nor that of their spouses, neither is it contiguous thereto; except that same constitutes the homestead of FRANCES S. ALEXANDER, which specified Grantor is a Widow.

Reference is hereby made to the Heirship Affidavit attached hereto, and incorporated herewith, in order to establish the chain of title upon this conveyance.

HEIRSHIP AFFIDAVIT

Comes now Frances S. Alexander, the surviving spouse of George Alexander, and Pleasia F. Spears, a disinterested party, hereinafter designated as "Affiants". After said Affiants having first been duly sworn, said Affiants do hereby depose and say as follows:

1. The above designated Affiants have personal knowledge of the facts stated herein, and are familiar with the family history of George Alexander and Frances S. Alexander heretofore; said George Alexander having heretofore been the record title holder of certain real estate located in Shelby County, Alabama hereinafter designated as follows:

The South half of Lot 18 Block 1 of the Town of Wilton, Alabama, according to survey by C. E. Boseman, C. E. for Maj. Joseph Hardie, less a 10 foot right-of-way over the West side of said Lot.

2. On or about February 11, 1991, George Alexander died in Shelby County, Alabama, while residing in Shelby County, Alabama.

3. The herein designated Affiants further state that the above designated George Alexander, hereinafter designated as "decedent", left as his lawful survivors, heirs, or persons otherwise interested in his estate, the following (with addresses, ages and states of mind or legal capacity herein designated):

Frances S. Alexander, Surviving Spouse

4. There were no other children ever born to the said decedent, and no other children ever adopted by the decedent or his above designated spouse, and there are no other parties who have an interest in the said decedent's herein described real estate.

5. Notwithstanding the fact that the above designated decedent died testate, the estate of said decedent was never probated, and no probate of his said estate is anticipated by the Affiants herein.

6. The above designated Affiants are unaware of any person or entity making a lawful, rightful or other form of claim to, or against, the herein described real estate, and no such future claim is anticipated by said Affiants.

7. The decedent and Frances S. Alexander have maintained actual possession and usage of the above described real estate continuously, openly, notoriously and exclusively for a period in excess of twenty (20) years prior to the execution of this Affidavit; and the said decedent and Frances S. Alexander have exercised such actual possession and usage both peacefully and adversely for the period of time indicated above.

8. In reference to the ownership and actual and constructive possession of the above designated decedent and Frances S. Alexander of the above described real estate, during the above designated period, no other person has ever advised or informed the decedent or Frances S. Alexander of any rights to title, liens or encumbrances as regarding the right, title or interest in or to the above designated property which would materially affect the present conveyance of said real estate.
