Randolph and husband, John N. Randolph (herein referred to as "Grantors"), in hand paid by Virginia S. Randolph and John N. By the execution and delivery of this Deed, Grantors and Grantees acknowledge that it is not their intention to create a joint tenancy with right of survivorship, but on the contrary, it is their intention to create, and they do hereby create a form of concurrent ownership in property as tenants in common during the respective lives of the Grantees, with cross-contingent remainders in fee to and in favor of the survivor, and to the heirs and assigns of such survivor, which interests so created in the Grantees are indestructible by the act of one of the Grantees.

And the Grantors DO, FOR THEMSELVES AND THEIR HEIRS, ADMINISTRATORS, SUCCESSORS AND ASSIGNS, COVENANT WITH THE SAID Grantees that Grantors are lawfully seized of said premises in fee simple; that they are free from all encumbrances except as hereinabove stated; that Grantors have a good right to sell and convey the same as aforesaid; and that Grantors will, and Grantors' successors and assigns shall warrant and defend the same unto the said grantees, their heirs and assigns forever, against the lawful claims of any and all persons.

TO HAVE AND TO HOLD to the said Grantees, as tenants in common and with equal rights and interest for the period or term that the said Grantees shall both survive, and unto the survivor of the said Grantees, at the death of the other and to the heirs and assigns of such survivor in fee simple forever, such tenancy being expressly intended to create co-tenants in common for life with a contingent remainder in fee in favor of the survivor of the Grantees.
