MAY 31 1990	Comes the <sup>out</sup> District Attorney, Hon. Dennis Jacobs who prosecutes for the State, and also comes the defendant in open court with his attorney, Hon. William Matthews, and with leave of the Court, withdraws his plea(s) of not guilty to the charges in the indictment and pleads guilty to the charges in court 1 of the indictment. D. Al Crowson
05/31/90	Motion to Allow Plea of Guilty Pursuant to Agreement filed Explanation of Rights (Court Exhibit A &amp; B filed. D. Al Crowson
05/31/90	Before accepting defendant's plea of guilty in this case, the court explained to defendant the privilege against compulsory self incrimination; the right to trial by jury; the right to confront one's accusers, and the consequences of the plea including the range of sentences; the nature of the charge and acts sufficient to constitute such offense. And based on such statements and explanations by the Court, it is now the opinion of the Court that defendant has full understanding of what the plea connotes and that the plea was made voluntarily and intelligently; and further shown by court record. D. Al Crowson
05/31/90	The Court accepts the defendant's plea and pronounces her guilty of the offense of Theft of Property-2nd Degree as embraced in the indictment. D. Al Crowson
05/31/90	The State and the defendant waive pre-sentence investigation. D. Al Crowson
05/31/90	Does the Defendant have anything to say before the Court imposes the sentence of law upon you? The Defendant answered "No Sir" D. Al Crowson
