Yvonne Harris	Secretary/ Treasurer	240 River Hills Business Park Birmingham, AL 35238

Notwithstanding any contrary provisions contained in these Articles of Incorporation, the Shareholder holding the majority of outstanding common stock of the Corporation may remove all or any of the Directors of the Corporation, before the expiration of their term, at any regular or special Shareholder meeting.

ARTICLE VIII

The Shareholder of said Corporation shall have the right to increase or decrease the capital stock to such sum or sums as she may desire.

ARTICLE IX

The Corporation shall have all the rights, powers, privileges and immunities conferred by The Alabama Business Corporation Act and all other laws applicable thereto, whether herein specifically set out or not, all of which are hereby referred to and made a part hereof as fully as though set out herein.

ARTICLE X

The duration of the Corporation shall be perpetual.

BOOK 045 PAGE 789

ARTICLE XI

The corporate powers shall be exercised by the Board of Directors, except as otherwise provided by statute, by these Articles of Incorporation, or by By-Laws hereafter adopted, and any amendments to the foregoing.

In furtherance, and not in limitation, of the powers conferred by statute, the Board of Directors are expressly authorized:

- (a) To make and alter the Bylaws of this Corporation, but By-laws so made by the Directors may be altered or repealed by the Directors or Shareholders;
- (b) To fix and determine and to vary the amount of working capital of the corporation; to determine whether any, and if any, what part of any accumulated profits shall be declared and paid as dividends, to determine the date or dates for the declaration and payment of dividends; to direct and determine the use and deposition of any surplus or net profit over and above the capital stock paid in;
- (c) To make, from time to time (so as may be permitted by law) temporary secured or unsecured loans when, in the judgment of the Board of Directors, the money so loaned is not at the time required in the conduct of the business of the Corporation.

The Corporation may, in its By-Laws, confer powers upon its Board of Directors in addition to the foregoing and in addition to the powers and authorities expressly conferred upon it by statute.

ARTICLE XII

The Corporation may from time to time issue its shares of stock for consideration (but not less than par so long as the Corporation be solvent), as may be fixed from time to time by the Board of Directors, and may receive in payment thereof, in whole or in part, cash, labor done, personal property, or real property, or leases thereof. In the absence of actual fraud in the transaction, the judgment of the Board of Directors as to the value of such labor, property, real estate or leases thereof, shall be conclusive. Any and all shares so issued for when the consideration so fixed shall have been paid or delivered shall be deemed fully paid stock and shall not be liable to any further call or assessment thereon, and the holders of such shares shall not be liable for any further payment in respect thereof.

This Corporation, may, from time to time, lawfully enter into any agreement to which all, or less than all, the holders of record of the issued and outstanding shares of its capital stock shall be parties, restricting the transfer of any or all shares of its capital stock represented by certificates therefor.

ARTICLE XIII

The Corporation shall have a lien on its shares of stock for any debt of liability incurred to it by a Shareholder, before notice of a transfer or levy on such shares.

ARTICLE XIV

The Corporation shall have the right to purchase, take, receive or otherwise acquire, hold own, pledge, transfer or otherwise dispose of its own shares, but purchases of its own shares, whether direct or indirect, shall be made only to the extent of earned surplus or capital surplus available therefor.

ARTICLE XV

All persons who shall acquire stock in this Corporation shall acquire it subject to the provisions of these Articles of Incorporation as the same from time to time may hereafter be amended. So far as not otherwise expressly provided by the laws of the State of Alabama, the Corporation shall be entitled to treat the person or entity in whose name any share of its stock is registered as the owner thereof for all purposes and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in said share on the part of any other person, whether or not the Corporation shall have notice thereof.

ARTICLE XVI

Every person (and the heirs, executors and administrators of such person) who is or was an officer, director or employee of the Corporation, or of any other corporation which he or she served as such at the request of the Corporation, and of which the Corporation directly or indirectly is a Shareholder or creditor or in which, or in the stocks, bonds, securities or other obligations of which it is in any way interested, may in accordance with the second paragraph of this Article be indemnified by the Corporation against any and all liability and reasonable expense that may be incurred by him or her in connection with or resulting from any claim, action, suit or proceeding (whether brought by or in the right of the Corporation or such other company or otherwise), civil or criminal, or in connection with an appeal relating thereto, in which he or she may become involved, as a party or otherwise, by reason of his or her being or having been an officer, director or employee of the Corporation or such other corporation, or by reason of any action taken or not taken by him or her in such capacity, whether he or she continues to be such officer, director or employee at the time such liability or expense shall have been incurred, provided he or she acted in good faith in what he or she reasonably believed to be the best interests of the Corporation or such other corporation, as the case may be, and in addition, in any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful. As used herein, the term "liability" and "expense" shall include, but shall not be limited to, counsel fees and disbursements and amounts of judgments, fines or penalties against, and amounts paid and settlements by or for such person. The termination of any claim, action, suit or proceeding, civil or criminal by judgement, settlement (whether with or without court approval) or conviction shall not create a presumption that such person does not meet the standards of conduct set forth herein.

Any indemnification hereunder shall be made at the discretion of the Corporation, but only if the Board of Directors (with no Director who is a party to or interested in such claim, action, suit or proceeding, participating) shall find that such person has met the standards of conduct set forth in the preceding paragraph. If two-thirds or more of the Board of Directors are parties to or are interested in such claim, action, suit or proceeding, the regular counsel for the Corporation shall determine whether such person has met such standards.

Expenses incurred with respect to any such claim, action, suit or proceeding may be advanced by the Corporation prior to the final disposition thereof upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of such person to repay such amount unless it shall ultimately be determined that he or she is entitled to indemnification hereunder.

The rights of indemnification provided in this Article shall be in addition to any rights to which any such person may otherwise be entitled under the law of the State of Alabama, and by-law, agreement vote of Shareholders, or otherwise.

ARTICLE XVII

The Directors and/or Shareholders may waive, in writing, any requirement under the laws of the State of Alabama (where the laws permit such waiver) for the holding of a formal meeting with respect to any business to be transacted by the Corporation, and may transact the business of the Corporation by resolution executed or consented to in writing by all of the Directors and/or Shareholders without the formality of a meeting, which resolution when so executed or consented to shall be valid and binding on the Corporation in the same manner as if a meeting had been called with respect to such action and notice issued, as provided by the laws of the State of Alabama.

ARTICLE XVIII

The private property of the Shareholders shall not be subject to payment of corporate debts to any extent whatsoever.

ARTICLE XIX

The Corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change or repeal any provisions contained in these Articles of Incorporation in the manner, now or hereafter prescribed by statute, and all right conferred on Shareholders herein are granted subject to this reservation.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, the Incorporator has hereunto signed and subscribed her name and files these Articles of Incorporation for record in the Office of the Probate Judge of Shelby County, Alabama, for the purpose of forming a corporation, in pursuance of said laws, this the 20 day of November, 1991.
