trust, execute releases, to use, to ask, demand, sue for, levy, recover and receive all such sum and sums of money, debts, rents, goods, wares, dues, accounts, and other demands whatsoever, which are or should be due, owing or payable to me, to sign checks and any and all other papers necessary for handling my affairs.

Giving and granting unto my said attorney full power and authority to do and perform all and every act and thing whatsoever requisite and necessary to be done in and about my affairs, as fully to all intents and purposes as I might or could do if personally present, with full power of substitution or revocation, hereby ratifying and confirming all that my said attorney shall lawfully do or cause to be done by virtue of these presents.

It is further provided that said attorney shall not be required to make or file any inventory of deposits, choses and actions or personal property concerned herewith nor shall he be required to post any surety bond in connection herewith.

This Power of Attorney revokes all prior powers of attorney granted by me.

This Power of Attorney shall not be affected by disability, incompetency or incapacity of the principal which renders the principal incapable of managing her own estate, giving and granting unto my said attorney full power and authority to do any and all acts necessary and proper to be done in and about the premises.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and seal
this 5th day of Jan., 1989.
