7. The period for the duration of the corporation shall be perpetual.

8. This corporation may from time to time issue its shares of stock for such consideration (but not less than par so long as the corporation be solvent) as may be fixed from time to time by the Board of Directors, and may receive in payment thereof, in whole or in part, cash, labor done, personal property or real property, or leases thereof. In the absence of actual fraud in the transaction, the judgment of the Board of Directors as to the value of such labor, property, real estate or leases thereof, shall be conclusive. Any and all shares so issued for which the consideration so fixed shall have been paid or delivered shall be deemed fully paid stock and shall not be liable to any further call or assessment thereon, and the holders of such shares shall not be liable for any further payment in respect thereof.

This corporation may, from time to time, lawfully enter into any agreement to which all, or less than all, the holders of record of the issued and outstanding shares of its capital stock shall be parties restricting the transfer of any or all shares of its capital stock represented by certificates therefor upon such reasonable terms and conditions, provided that such restrictions be stated upon each certificate representing such shares.

9. All persons who shall acquire stock in this corporation shall acquire it subject to the provisions of this Certificate of Incorporation, as the same from time to time may hereafter be amended. So far as not otherwise expressly provided by the laws of the State of Alabama, the corporation shall be entitled to treat the person or entity in whose name any share of its stock is registered as the owner thereof for all purposes and shall not be bound to recognize any equitable or other claim to or interest in said share on the part of any other person, whether or not the corporation shall have notice thereof.

10. The Board of Directors of the corporation is hereby empowered from time to time to authorize the issue and sale of warranties, in bearer or registered form or other instruments for the purchase of shares of stock of any class of the corporation within such period of time, or without limit as to time, to such aggregate number of shares, and at such price or prices per share, as the Board of Directors may determine. Such warrants or other instruments may be issued separately or in connection with the issue of any bonds, debentures, notes or other evidences of indebtedness or share of the capital stock of any class of the corporation and for such consideration and on such terms and conditions as the Board of Directors may determine to be desirable.

11. Any and every statute of the State of Alabama hereafter enacted whereby the rights, powers and privileges of the stockholders of corporations organized under the general laws of the State of Alabama are increased, diminished or in any way affected, or whereby effect is given to the action taken by any part less than all of the stockholders of any such corporation, shall apply to this corporation, but upon every stockholder thereof, to the same extent as if such statute had been in force and effect at the date of the making and filing of this Certificate of Incorporation.

12. The President shall have authority to execute all deeds, mortgages, bonds and other contracts requiring a seal, under the seal of the corporation and the Secretary or any assistant Secretary shall have authority to affix said seal to instruments requiring it, and attest the same.

13. The corporate powers shall be exercised by the Board of Directors, except as otherwise provided by statute or by this Certificate of Incorporation. In furtherance and not in limitation of the powers conferred by statute, the Board of Directors is expressly authorized:

A. To alter, amend and repeal the By-Laws of the corporation, but By-Laws so made by the directors may be altered or repealed by the directors and stockholders; and

B. To fix and determine and to vary the amount of working capital of the corporation; to determine whether any, if any, and what part of any accumulated profits shall be declared and paid as dividends; to determine the date or dates for the declaration and payment of dividends; and to direct and determine the use and disposition of any surplus or net profits over and above the capital stock paid in.

The corporation may, in its By-Laws, confer powers upon the Board of Directors in addition to the foregoing, and in addition to the powers and authorities expressly conferred upon directors by statute.

14. Each person who shall serve as a director or officer of this corporation shall be indemnified by the corporation against all costs and expenses reasonable incurred by or imposed upon him, in connection with or resulting from any action, suit or proceeding to which he is, or may be made a party, by reason of his being or having been a director or officer of the corporation (and including settlements made with a view to curtailment of litigation costs in amounts approved by the Board of Directors, but not including any case where, in the opinion of the counsel for the corporation, the directors or officers are liable, whether or not such person is a director or officer at the time such settlement is effected), at the time such costs or expenses are incurred by or imposed upon him, except in relation to matters as to which he shall be finally adjudged in such action, suit or proceeding to be liable or to have been negligent, guilty of misconduct or otherwise derelict in performance of his duty as such officer or director. The right of indemnification herein provided shall not be exclusive of other rights to which such person may be entitled as a matter of law.

15. No contract or other transaction between this corporation and any person, firm, corporation or association and no other act of this corporation shall, in the absence of fraud, be invalidated or in any way be affected by the fact that any of the directors of the corporation are directly or indirectly, pecuniarily or otherwise interested in such contract, transaction or other act, or related to or interested in (either as a director, stockholder, officer, employee, member or otherwise) such person, firm, association or corporation. Any director of the corporation individually or any firm or association of which any director may be a member, may be a party to, or may be pecuniarily or otherwise interested in, any contract or transaction of the corporation, provided that the fact that he, individually, or such firm or association is so interested, shall be disclosed or known to the Board of Directors or a majority of the members thereof as shall be present at any meeting of the Board of Directors, or of any committee of directors having the powers of the full board, at which action upon any such contract, transaction or other act is taken; and if such fact shall be so disclosed or known, any director of this corporation so related or otherwise interested may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at any meeting of the Board of Directors, or of such committee, at which action upon any contract, transaction or act shall be taken, and may vote thereat with respect to such action with like force and effect as if he were not so related or interested. Any director of the corporation may vote upon any contract or other transaction between the corporation and any subsidiary or affiliated corporation without regard to the fact that he is also a director of such subsidiary or affiliated corporation.

16. The corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change or repeal any provision contained in this Certificate of Incorporation in the manner now or hereafter provided by law, and all rights conferred upon officers, directors and stockholders herein are granted subject to this reservation.

17. Attached hereto, marked as Exhibit "A" and made a part hereof is a statement, under oath, made by John David Burleson _____, the officer or agent authorized by the incorporators to receive subscription to the capital stock of the corporation, showing the amount of capital stock of the corporation subscribed for and the amount thereof which has been paid in.
