10. Transfer of the Property: Assumption. If all or any part of the mortgaged property or an interest therein is sold or transferred by Mortgagors without Mortgagee's prior written consent, excluding (a) the creation of a lien or encumbrance subordinate to this Mortgage, (b) the creation of a purchase money security interest for household appliances, (c) a transfer by devise, descent or by operation of law upon the death of a joint tenant or (d) the grant of any leasehold interest of three years or less not containing an option to purchase, Mortgagee may, at Mortgagee's option, declare all the sums secured by this Mortgage to be immediately due and payable. Mortgagee shall have waived such option to accelerate if, prior to the sale or transfer, Mortgagee and the person to whom the mortgaged property is to be sold or transferred reach agreement in writing that the credit of such person is satisfactory to Mortgagee and that the interest payable on the sums secured by this Mortgage shall be at such rate as Mortgagee shall request.

If Mortgagee exercises such option to accelerate, Mortgagee shall mail Mortgagors notice of acceleration. Such notice shall provide a period of not less than 30 days from the date the notice is mailed within which Mortgagors may pay the sums declared due. If Mortgagors fails to pay such sums prior to the expiration of such period Mortgagee may, without further notice or demand on Mortgagors, invoke any remedies permitted hereunder.

Birmingham, Jefferson

County, Alabama at public outcry for cash, after first giving notice of the time, place and terms of such sale by publication once a week for three consecutive weeks prior to said sale in some newspaper published in said City, and upon the payment of the purchase money the Mortgagee, or owner of the debt and mortgage, or auctioneer, shall execute to the purchaser for and in the name of the Mortgagors a good and sufficient deed to the property sold; the Mortgagee shall apply the proceeds of said sale: First, to the expense of advertising, selling and conveying, including a reasonable attorney's fee; second, to the payment of any amounts that may have been expended or that may then be necessary to expend in paying insurance, taxes and other encumbrances, with interest thereon; third, to the payment in full of the principal indebtedness and interest thereon, whether the same shall or shall not have fully matured at the date of said sale, but no interest shall be collected beyond the date of sale; and fourth, the balance, if any, to be paid over to the said Mortgagors or to whomever then appears of record to be the owner of said property. The Mortgagee may bid and become the purchaser of the mortgaged property at any foreclosure sale thereunder.
