In the event of conflict, the most restrictive provision of such laws, rules, regulations, deeds, or the general covenants, restrictions, and easements shall govern and control.

No delay or failure on the part of the aggrieved party to initiate an available remedy set forth herein shall be held to be a waiver of that party or an estoppel of that party or of any other party to assert any right available to him/her upon the recurrence or continuation of said violation or the occurrence of a different violation.

Damages shall not be deemed adequate compensation for any breach or violation of any provision hereof, but any person or entity entitled to enforce any provision hereof shall be entitled specifically to relief by way of injunction as well as any other available relief at law or in equity.

Any party to a proceeding who succeeds in enforcing a general covenant, restriction, or easement or enjoining the violation of the same against a Lot owner may be awarded a reasonable attorney's fee against such Lot owner.
