REQUEST FOR ACCEPTANCE OF STILLWOOD DRIVE

Mayor Walker asked if the council would like to make a motion to accept Stillwood Estates's Stillwood Drive as a city street. Councilman Nivens made the motion to accept Stillwood Drive as a city street due to the requirements that have been met are same as other districts. Councilman Averett stated that the subdivision ordinance was not in effect when the other subdivisions were put constructed. Mayor Walker stated that the council had discussed this thoroughly during a work session. Walker stated that the owners of Stillwood Estates was caught in an unfortunate situation because they were caught between three administration. The following vote on the motion was recorded: Yeas- Councilman Kelley, Nivens, Parr, and Mayor Walker. Nays- Councilman Lee and Averett. The motion was carried.
