6. The purpose for which this Corporation is organized shall be to undertake any and all business for the promotion, consultation, and management of entertainment activities or events for the benefit of the general public, or private affairs and or all other lawful business for which a Corporation may be incorporated under the Alabama Business Corporation Act.

7. The term of existence of the Corporation shall be perpetual.

8. The Board of Directors of the Corporation shall maintain authority to amend these Articles to expand or alter the class of shares, to establish series, and fix and determine the variations in the relative rights and preferences between the series.

9. Shares of the Corporation may be freely transferred, except that a shareholder desiring to transfer any such shares of the corporate stock shall first offer to the Corporation, or to any other Shareholder of the Corporation, or to any combination of the foregoing, prior opportunity, to be exercised within a reasonable time, to acquire the "restrictive transfer" shares, at the reasonable market value thereof. Each Shareholder of the Corporation shall further have the preemptive right to purchase treasury shares of the Corporation, or other shares being sold by the Corporation for the fair market value thereof.

10. The hereinabove designated Corporation does hereby eliminate the liability of a Director to the Corporation or its Shareholders for money damages for any action taken, or any failure to take any action, as a Director, except liability for the following:

A) The amount of a financial benefit received by a Director to which he or she is not entitled;

B) Any intentional infliction of harm on the Corporation or the Shareholders;

C) An intentional violation of criminal law;

D) A breach of the Directors duty of loyalty to the Corporation or its Shareholders;

E) Each Director is held only to the standard of "exercising sound business judgment", within his or her role as a Director of the Corporation.

I, the undersigned have subscribed my name this 1st day of March, 19 96.
