FINAL JUDGMENT

This cause, coming on to be heard, was submitted for final Order on April 21, 1995. Pursuant to the Order of this Court entered on December 7, 1994, which Order is incorporated by reference herein, and based upon the evidence heard by this Court at the non-jury trial of this case in October, 1994, the post-trial submissions of the parties, and this Court's thorough understanding of the contentions and claims of the parties, it is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED as follows:

1. Defendants Darnell and Marilyn Guyer (the "Guyers") are entitled to consummate the exercise of their option, held under an agreement recorded in the Probate Office of Jefferson County, Alabama in Book 342, Page 343, between defendant AmSouth Bank of Alabama, as Executor and Trustee under the will of Bill McCollough, Jr. ("AmSouth"), and the Guyers dated September 9, 1982 (the "Agreement"), to purchase that undivided 65.3% interest held by the Bill McCollough, Jr., Trust f/b/o Timothy McCollough (the "Trust") in the following described real property situated in Shelby County, Alabama: Lot 2, Block 5, according to a survey of the first addition to Indian Hills, second sector, as it is recorded in Map Book 5, at Page 7, in the Office of Judge of Probate of Shelby County, Alabama (the "Subject Property"). The option to purchase the Subject Property, which option was exercised by the Guyers in March of 1993, remains valid, notwithstanding the intervening passage of time due to the litigation of this matter. As such, AmSouth and plaintiff Timothy McCollough are hereby directed to honor the exercise of such option and to convey, at the closing of the sale of the Subject Property, the interest of the Trust to the Guyers in accordance with the terms of the Agreement.

2. The terms of the Agreement control the purchase of the partial interest in the Subject Property by the Guyers, notwithstanding the intervening passage of time from the exercise of the option to the present due to the litigation of this matter. Therefore, AmSouth and plaintiff Timothy McCollough are directed to honor the terms of the Agreement and the sale should be consummated as if the sale were closing within ninety (90) days of the exercise of the option to purchase.

3. Pursuant to paragraph 2(b) of the Agreement, AmSouth and plaintiff Timothy McCollough are hereby ordered to sign, within five (5) days of the date of this Order, a Deed, which Deed is attached hereto as Exhibit "A" and incorporated herein by reference as if fully set forth at this point, conveying their undivided interest in the Subject Property, free and clear of all encumbrances excepting only ad valorem taxes not now due and payable and easements for roads and public utilities. The Court does hereby determine that plaintiff Timothy McCollough's rights in paragraph 4 of said Agreement under the provision entitled "Future Sales of the New Residence" do not constitute an encumbrance against the title to the Subject Property because the rights, if any, are contractual in nature and do not constitute a right or interest in the Subject Property. Colonial Capital Corporation v. Smith, 367 So. 2nd 490 (Ala. Civ. App.

1979). The plaintiff's right, if any, is a contractual right to receive a payment of a sum of money from the Guyers upon the occurrence of certain events and does not affect the Guyers' right to title, use, dominion or control over the Subject Property. Tuskegee Land & Sec. Co. v. Birmingham Realty Co., 161 Ala. 542, 49 So. 378 (1909). The Court does hereby determine that plaintiff Timothy McCollough's contractual rights in paragraph 4 of the said Agreement shall survive the execution and delivery of the Deed in favor of the Guyers as hereinabove referenced. Plaintiff Timothy McCollough's right or entitlement to a portion of the gain on a subsequent sale by the Guyers, as set forth in paragraph 4 of said Agreement, is in no way altered or changed by virtue of this Order and said contract right, if any, survives the delivery of the deed hereinabove referenced.

4. AmSouth shall receive the proceeds of the sale of the subject property and shall hold such proceeds as trustee, together with any other property of the Trust, until the time period for appeal from this Order has expired with no notice of appeal having been filed, or until any appeal of this Order is finally resolved, whichever occurs first, such period to be referred to herein as the "Prescribed Period."

5. Upon the expiration of the Prescribed Period, AmSouth shall distribute the Trust proceeds in accordance with this Court's Order of May 8, 1995, which Order is incorporated by reference herein.

6. Any additional costs of this action are taxed to plaintiff.

7. Plaintiff Timothy McCollough has been ably and well represented in this cause and, during the pendency of this litigation, upon motion of Plaintiff, AmSouth as trustee has been ordered to make distributions to him in the aggregate amount of $34,000. After AmSouth as trustee makes the disbursements ordered in paragraph 5 above, any remaining assets of the Trust shall also be distributed to plaintiff Timothy D. McCollough.

8. Furthermore, to avoid any confusion and because there is no just reason for delay, this judgment shall be entered by the Clerk pursuant to Alabama Rule of Civil Procedure 54(b).

DONE this the 18th day of May, 1995.

3. McCollough does hereby waive and relinquish any and all rights to appeal the previous orders entered by the Court in this cause to any state or federal court with jurisdiction over the same, including, but not limited to, the Alabama Court of Civil Appeals or the Alabama Supreme Court; and McCollough does hereby further waive and relinquish any and all rights to appeal the Consent Order of this Court to be entered in this cause.

4. That should McCollough appeal any of the orders in this cause, McCollough does hereby agree that he will voluntarily dismiss any such appeal against any party in this cause and that he will be responsible for the reasonable attorney's fees and costs, if any, incurred by the Guyers relative to the defense of any such appeal.

5. That as additional consideration for the above stated payment, McCollough does hereby sell, assign, and transfer to the Guyers, any of his remaining interest in the Testamentary Trust established under the Last Will and Testament of Bill McCollough, Jr.

6. That should any provision of this Settlement Agreement be held to be invalid, illegal, or unconstitutional, such finding shall not effect the remaining provisions of this Settlement Agreement which provisions shall continue in full force and effect.

7. The parties hereto acknowledge that McCollough shall not be responsible for the Guyer's closing costs.

8. McCollough acknowledges that he has entered into this agreement knowingly and with advise of counsel, and that he is not under any compulsion or duress at this time, but that the execution of this document is his free and voluntary act.
