IN THE DISTRICT COURT OF

DALLAS COUNTY, T E X A S

160th JUDICIAL DISTRICT

J U D G M E N T

On this day came on to be heard the above-styled and numbered cause and came the Plaintiff by its attorney of record and announced ready, but the Defendant, though duly cited as required by law, came not but wholly made default, and it appearing to the Court that proper service had been made as required by law and that the parties are before the Court for a hearing hereon and it further appearing from the sworn pleadings filed by the Plaintiff that the Defendant did business in Texas by contracting with the Plaintiff, a Texas resident, which performed services and sold and delivered to Plaintiff certain goods, wares, merchandise and services in Dallas County, Texas and that this Court has jurisdiction over this controversy and the Defendant, the Court having considered the sworn pleadings of the Plaintiff, finds that the Plaintiff is entitled to recover judgment against the Defendant, it is therefore

ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED by the Court that the Plaintiff, The Webworks, Inc. do have and recover from the Defendant, William G. Aldridge, individually and doing business as Media Mail the sum of $91,917.30 with interest thereon to date in the amount of $4,910.75 plus attorney's fees of $12,000.00 which the Court finds to be a reasonable fee, plus an additional attorney's fee of $3,000.00 if appealed to the Court of Appeals, plus an additional $4,500.00 if appealed to the Texas Supreme Court, together with costs of suit with interest thereon at the maximum rate allowed by law until paid, and it is further ORDERED, ADJUDGED and DECREED that this Judgment is a final judgment and that Plaintiff is entitled to issuance of all lawful writs and processes including execution.

SIGNED this 9 day of July, 1996.
