During such period of continuing trust the Successor Trustee, in his absolute discretion, may retain the specific trust property herein described if he believes it in the best interest of the beneficiary so to do, or he may sell or otherwise dispose of such specific trust property, investing and reinvesting the proceeds as he may deem appropriate. If the specific trust property shall be productive of income or if it be sold or otherwise disposed of, the Successor Trustee may apply or expend any or all of the income or principal directly for the maintenance, education and support of the minor beneficiary without the intervention of any guardian and without application to any court. Such payments of income or principal may be made to the parents of such minor or to the person with whom the minor is living without any liability upon the Successor Trustee to see to the application thereof. We reserve unto ourselves the power and right during our lifetime to amend or revoke in whole or in part the trust hereby created without the necessity of obtaining the consent of any beneficiary, and without giving notice to any beneficiary, but no such amendment or revocation shall be effective unless and until it is filed in the land records. The sale or other disposition by us of the whole or any part of the property shall constitute as to such whole or part a revocation of this trust.
