FINAL JUDGMENT

This case has now been submitted for decision on the motion filed by U.S.T.&D. Co., Inc., for judgment by default against the defendant, Linda McNeely Freeman Perkins, a/k/a Linda McNeely Freeman ("Linda Perkins"). Until October 24, 1991, Linda Perkins was an employee of U.S.T.&D. and occupied a position of trust and confidence in U.S.T.&D.'s bookkeeping and accounting departments. Her duties and responsibilities included the paying of accounts payable and bills to vendors for U.S.T.&D. As such employee, she had access to and authority to fill out checks and negotiable instruments to pay accounts payable and vendors. U.S.T.&D. says that Linda Perkins used her position of trust to embezzle funds from U.S.T.&D. Beginning in 1990, Linda Perkins engaged in a scheme of embezzling funds of U.S.T.&D. by fraudulently altering, forging and changing the names of the true payees of numerous check stubs and concealing that she was unlawfully endorsing and collecting such funds. During the period from 1990 up to and including 1991 when discovered by U.S.T.&D. Linda Perkins embezzled $63,258.00.

In connection with such embezzlement, Linda Perkins was indicted and charged with the crime of theft in the first degree and pleaded guilty to the same on May 19, 1992.

In the present case, service of the summons and complaint was effected on Linda Perkins on February 2, 1993. She has failed to file any appearance or response in this case.

In accordance with the evidence submitted, this Court finds that the motion for judgment by default filed by U.S.T.&D. is due to be granted.

Accordingly, judgment is hereby rendered in favor of U.S.T.&D. and against Linda McNeely Freeman Perkins, a/k/a Linda McNeely Freeman, in the amount of $63,258.00 compensatory damages and, in addition, the sum of $60,000.00 punitive damages, for the total amount of $123,258.00.

All costs of court are taxed against the defendant.

This order finally concludes all matters at issue in this case.

Done this 4 day of October, 1993.
