estate insured against loss or damage by fire, lightning and tornado for the reasonable insurable value thereof in companies satisfactory to the Mortgagee, with loss, if any, payable to the Mortgagee, as the interest of the Mortgagee may appear, and promptly to deliver the policies, or any renewals of the policies, to the Mortgagee; and if undersigned fail to keep the Property insured as above specified, or fail to deliver the insurance policies to the Mortgagee then the Mortgagee has the option of insuring the Property for the reasonable insurable value for the benefit of the Mortgagee, the policy, if collected, to be credited on the Indebtedness, less cost of collecting same; all amounts so expended by the Mortgagee for taxes, assessments or insurance, shall become a debt to the Mortgagee, additional to the debt hereby specially secured, and shall be covered by this Mortgage, and bear interest from the date of payment by the Mortgagee, and be at once due and payable.

Upon condition, however, that if the Mortgagor pays the Indebtedness, and reimburses the Mortgagee for any amounts Mortgagee may have expended for taxes, assessments and insurance, and the interest thereon, then this conveyance to be null and void, but should default be made in the payment of any sum expended by the Mortgagee, or should the Indebtedness hereby secured, or any part thereof, or the interest thereon, remain unpaid at maturity, or should the interest of the Mortgagee in the Property become endangered by reason of the enforcement of any prior lien or encumbrance thereon, so as to endanger the debt hereby secured, or if any statement of lien is filed under the Statutes of Alabama relating to the liens of mechanics and materialmen without regard to form and contents of such statement and without regard to the existence or non-existence of the debt or any part thereof or of the lien on which such statement is based, then in any one of said events, the whole of the Indebtedness hereby secured shall at once become due and payable, and this mortgage be subject to foreclosure as now provided by law in case of past due mortgages, and the Mortgagee shall be authorized to take possession of the premises hereby conveyed and with or without first taking possession, after giving twenty-one days' notice by publishing once a week for three consecutive weeks, the time, place and terms of sale, in some newspaper published in Shelby County, Alabama, to sell the same in lots or parcels, or en masse, as Mortgagee may deem best, in front of the Court House door in Shelby County, at public outcry, to the highest bidder for cash and apply the proceeds of the sale; first, to the expense of advertising, selling and conveying, including a reasonable attorney's fee; second, to the payment of any amounts that may have been expended, or that it may be necessary then to expend in paying insurance, taxes, or other encumbrances, with interest thereon; third, to the payment of the Indebtedness in full, whether or not it shall have fully matured, at the date of the sale, but no interest shall be collected beyond the day of sale; and fourth, the remainder, if any, to be turned over to the Mortgagor; and the undersigned, further agree that the Mortgagee may bid at said sale and purchase the Property, if the highest bidder therefor, as though a stranger hereto, and the person acting as auctioneer at such sale is hereby authorized and empowered to execute a deed to the purchaser thereof in the name of the Mortgagor by such auctioneer as agent, or attorney in fact; and undersigned further agree to pay a reasonable attorney's fee to the Mortgagee for the foreclosure of this mortgage in Chancery, should the same be so foreclosed, said fee to be a part of the debt hereto secured.

It is expressly understood that the word "Mortgagee" wherever used in this mortgage refers to the person named as grantee in the granting clause herein.

Any estate or interest herein conveyed to the Mortgagee, or any right or power granted to the Mortgagee in or by this mortgage, is hereby expressly conveyed and granted to the heirs, and agents, and assigns of the Mortgagee.
