The Powers You Grant Below Continue to be Effective Should you Become Disabled or Incompetent

(Caution: This is an important document. It gives the person whom you designate (your "agent") broad powers to handle your property during your lifetime which may include powers to mortgage, sell, or otherwise dispose of any real or personal property without advance notice to you or approval by you. These powers will continue to exist even after you become disabled or incompetent. These powers are explained more fully in New York General Obligations Law, Article 5, Title 15, Sections 5-1502A through 5-1503, which expressly permit the use of any other or different form of Power of Attorney. This document does not authorize anyone to make medical or other health care decisions. You may execute a health care proxy to do this. If there is anything about this form that you do not understand, you should ask a lawyer to explain it to you.)
