AFFIDAVIT TO CORRECT WARRANTY DEED

Before me, the undersigned Notary Public Official in and for the state and county stated hereinabove, personally appeared Thomas E. Norton, Jr., whom is known to me and whom, after being first duly sworn by me, did say as follows:

My name is Thomas E. Norton, Jr. and I am the Notary Public official who notarized the signatures of the mortgagors, James R. Owen, Jr. and wife, Alana J. Owen, in that certain mortgage dated September 24, 1998 to Whiteoak Mortgage Services, Inc., filed in the Office of the Judge of Probate of Shelby County, Alabama, in Inst. No. 1998-42833. That the county wherein the said mortgage was executed by the mortgagors and acknowledged by me was omitted by oversight from the said mortgage; that the said mortgage was executed and notarized in Jefferson County, Alabama.

It is the intent and purpose of the within Affidavit to correct the said acknowledgment as to the name of the county wherein said mortgage was executed and acknowledged.

In Witness Whereof, the undersigned affiant has executed the foregoing and caused the same to be delivered on this the 7th day of December, 1998.

(Seal)
Thomas E. Norton, Jr.

Sworn to and subscribed before me on this the 7th day of December, 1998.
