ARTICLE FIVE
GOVERNING LAWS AND POWERS

The Corporation shall be governed by and subject to the Alabama Business Corporation Act, pursuant to the laws of the State of Alabama. The Corporation shall enjoy the powers and privileges set forth herein pursuant to the laws of the State of Alabama specifically including, without limitation, the following:

1. To sell, exchange, purchase, construct on, rent or lease Real Estate.
2. To negotiate legal arrangements to be entered into for the purpose of a legal venture in anticipation of receiving or sharing profits and union of interests in combination with any person, partnership, corporation, association, organization, or any other such legal entity or body, whether such venture be with a domestic or foreign company, for the purpose of carrying on any business or transaction deemed necessary, convenient or incidental to the purposes of this corporation as found in this Articles of Incorporation.
3. To assume, guarantee or become surety for the payment and performance of any all debts and obligations of another or others and to guarantee the payment of dividends upon any security or securities.
4. To take, own, hold, deal in, mortgage or otherwise give lien against and to lease, sell, buy, exchange, transfer and, in any manner, dispose of or deal with real property or every class or description, and any and all interest therein, both within and outside the State of Alabama.
5. To manufacture, purchase or otherwise acquire, in any lawful manner, and hold, own, mortgage, pledge or otherwise to give liens against and to lease, sell, assign, exchange, transfer, or in any manner, dispose of, to deal and trade in and with, and to invest in goods, wares, merchandise and property of any and every class and description, both within and outside the State of Alabama, and in any part of the world.
6. For any of the purposes of the corporation and without any limitation as to amount, to borrow and raise monies, to draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, pledge, issue, sell or otherwise dispose of promissory notes, drafts, bills of exchange, warrants, bonds and other instruments, whether transferable, and other evidence of indebtedness, whether secured by mortgage or otherwise, either alone or jointly with any other person or corporation; to confer upon the holders of any of its obligations such rights, powers and pledges as from time to time might be deemed advisable by the Board of Directors, except as may be specifically prohibited by law; to lend money with or without collateral or other security.
7. To enter into, make and perform contracts of every kind for any lawful purpose with any person, firm, association, corporation, municipality or body politic.

8. To purchase, insofar as the same may be done without impairing capital of the corporation, except as otherwise permitted by law, and to hold, pledge, and reissue shares of its own capital stock, as determined by the Board of Directors.

9. To do any and all of the things herein set forth to the same extent as natural persons might or could do and in any part of the world as principals, agents, contractors, trustees, or otherwise, and either alone or in the company of others.

10. In general, to carry on any other business in connection therewith and to do all things not forbidden by the laws of the State of Alabama and with all the powers conferred upon corporations by the laws of the State of Alabama. It is the intention that each of the objects, purposes and powers specified in each of the paragraphs of this Fifth Article of this Articles of Incorporation shall, except where otherwise specified, by no wise limited or restriction articles, but that the objects, purposes and powers specified in this article and in each of the articles and paragraphs of this Articles of Incorporation shall be regarded as independent objects, purposes and powers, and shall not be construed to restrict, in any manner, the general powers and terms of this corporation nor shall the expression of any one thing be deemed to exclude another, although it be of like nature.

ARTICLE SIX CAPITAL STOCK

1. The aggregate number of shares which the corporation shall have the authority to issue on One Thousand (1000) common shares of the par value of Zero and 10/100 ($0.10) each, thus representing a total authorized capital of One Hundred Dollars ($100.00) and consisting of such one class only.

2. Each outstanding share of stock shall be entitled to one (1) vote on each matter submitted to a vote at a meeting of the shareholders and such vote may be cast in person or by proxy.

3. The corporation may purchase, take, receive, or otherwise acquire, hold, own, pledge, transfer or otherwise dispose of its own shares.

4. No person shall have the power to bind the corporation within the scope of the business authorized and provided for within the Articles of Incorporation of the corporation limited by virtue of such person being a shareholder of the corporation.

5. No shareholder shall have any preemptive right to purchase any proportion of any shares of the corporation, including treasury shares, that might be issued or sold by the corporation.

ARTICLE SEVEN
REGULATION OF CORPORATION'S INTERNAL AFFAIRS

1. Meetings. Meetings of the Shareholders and Directors of this Corporation will be held either in or out of the State of Alabama, at such place or places as may be designed in the By-Laws or by the Board of Directors herein included in this Articles of Incorporation.

2. By-Laws. The initial By-Laws of this corporation shall be adopted by the Shareholders. The power to alter, amend, or repeal the By-Laws or adopt new By-Laws shall be exclusively vested in the Shareholders. The affirmative vote of the majority shares of the outstanding shares of the corporation entitled to vote, at any regular or special meeting, where such meeting constitutes a quorum of the shareholders, will be necessary to amend or repel the By-laws. The By-Laws may contain any provisions for the management and regulation of the business and for the conduct of the affairs of the corporation which will be consistent with the powers an authority expressly provided by statute or these articles of the Articles of Incorporation.

3. Contracts Involving Directors. No contract or other transaction of this Corporation with any person or Corporation will be invalidated or effected by:

- (a) The fact that the director has an interest in or is an officer of any other corporation;
- or
- (b) The fact that any director may be involved or has an interest in the contract or transaction.

A person who may become a director of the corporation is relieved of any liability arising by reason of his contract with the corporation for his own benefit or the benefit of any corporation of which he may have an interest.
