The undersigned, Richard McFalls and Thomas Allred, desire to become a body corporate for the purpose of carrying on a lawful business in pursuance of the laws of the State of Alabama relating to corporations, and for that purpose does make, sign and file the following Articles of Incorporation pursuant to the provisions of the "Alabama Business Corporation Act", as last amended.

ARTICLE I

The name of the Corporation shall be Exits, Inc.

ARTICLE II

The nature of the business and the objects and purposes to be transacted, promoted or carried on by the Corporation are to be any or all of the things herein mentioned as fully, and to the same extent, as natural persons might or could do, in any part of the world, viz:

1. To operate a business for sales, installation and repair of automatic doors.
2. To borrow money for the purpose of carrying on the business of this Corporation, to lease, buy, sell, convey, rent and mortgage or pledge, both real and personal property as the same shall be necessary or incidental to the carrying on of said business, and generally to do all things that may be necessary or incidental to the carrying on of said business.
3. Subject to the limitations and restrictions imposed by law, to make, accept, endorse, execute and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bonds, debentures, or other obligations from time to time for the purchase of property or for any purpose in or about the business of the company.

4. To establish lines of credit with banking houses for the purposes herein above enumerated and set forth, and to incur indebtedness and to raise, borrow and secure the payment of money in any lawful manner, including the issue and sale of other disposition of warrants, bonds, debentures or obligations, negotiable and transferable instruments, and evidences of deeds of trust, or otherwise, for the purpose of adding additional capital or for any other purposes in or about its business or affairs without limit as to amount, except as provided by statute, this to be done on such terms and conditions and by such officers as said banking house or houses may require.
5. To acquire the property, rights, franchises, certificates and good will, including the whole or any part of the assets, and in connections therewith, assume or guarantee such liabilities of any person, firm association or other corporation as this Corporation may lawfully acquire or assume, to pay for the same in cash, or in stocks or bonds of this Corporation, or otherwise.
6. To subscribe for, buy, sell and own stock, notes or bonds of any other corporation.
7. To engage in any other lawful activity, except that of banking or insurance.
8. The foregoing clauses shall be construed as powers, as well as objects and purposes, and the matters expressed in each clause shall, except as otherwise expressly provided, be in no wise limited by reference to or inference from the terms of any other clause, which shall be regarded as independent objects, purposes and powers; and the enumeration of specific objects, purposes and powers shall not be construed to limit or restrict in any manner the meaning of general terms of the powers of the Corporation now or hereafter conferred by law, nor shall the expression of one thing be deemed to exclude another not expressed, although it be of like nature.
