MOTION AND AFFIDAVIT

Donald G. Furlow, being first duly sworn, says he is the attorney for the Plaintiff in the above entitled action; that the Defendants H & J Pizza Company, Inc. d/b/a Maestro's Pizza, Edwin J. Hancock and Laura D. Hancock were properly served with Summons, but that the Defendants have failed to appear or otherwise plead to the Petition of the Plaintiff and is therefore in default.

That the allegations contained in the Petition of the Plaintiff are true.

That the individual Defendants are not members of the military services of the United States or its allies.

That the principal sum of $34,427.90, as of December 3, 2001, plus pre and post judgment interest at the lease default rate of 18% per annum, is now due and owing, after allowance of all proper credits and payments and no part of said principal and/or interest has been paid.

That the Plaintiff is entitled to a judgment in the sum of $21,823.82, plus pre and post judgment interest at the lease default rate of 18% per annum, and Court costs.

Wherefore, the Plaintiff moves the Court for said judgment by default.
